

1 EXT.COSMIC TIME TECHNOLOGIES-NIGHT

The episode begins with Amanda (the same girl from the last episode) walking into a crowd. An orientation for the hero training program is being held. She looks to her left and sees a group of 3 talking to each other. The group turns out to be Cheyne, Jerzel and Zaire. Cheyne puts on his glasses.

CHEYNE

Hey, so how are they choosing us?

JERZEL

Dunno, man.

She pulls her sleeves up and smiles. Cheyne looks at Jerzel.

CHEYNE

What? You're really gonna say that so leniently? You do realize if we get in, we're in forever, right? I say we get out of here while we have the chance.

JERZEL

I say no.

CHEYNE

I say yes! Come on!

JERZEL

...nope. I'm sticking with it.

CHEYNE

We three always stick together. If we slip up... then it might be all over.

JERZEL

So we might as well close our doors together, am I right?

Jerzel playfully slaps Cheyne in the back

JERZEL

Hey, lighten up, dude. You're wasting time thinking of the future.

Cheyne looks to his side and scoffs.

CHEYNE

Now, where's Zay?

The camera pans to Zaire at the refreshments table picking out his food.

CHEYNE
Should've figured.

Cheyne looks around, analyzing the various people at the event. Most of them, including him, are wearing a suit. A few are wearing pre-made costumes. Zaire and Jerzel are wearing casual clothing. He spots Amanda, with torn-down and wore-out clothes. She looks back skeptically.

Zaire comes back with a huge plate of food, which catches Cheyne's and Jerzel's attention.

ZAIRE
Yo guys, the food here is tubular!
This meal alone might last me weeks,
or even months!

JERZEL
You have a plate filled with cake.
"Meal" isn't exactly the first thing that comes to mind.

Suddenly, a loud, booming voice surrounds the vicinity, grabbing the attention of the entire crowd. The voice is initially unknown, but it's soon recognizable as Landon James, A.K.A the World-famous hero, The Timestopper.

THE TIMESTOPPER
As you may recognize by my voice, this is the city-class superhero, The Timestopper. I'm communicating with you all via the various speakers hidden in the area. I'll get straight to the chase. Many of you attend here tonight in order to train yourselves to become "young heroes" of some sort.

JERZEL
Um, that is what it said on the paper.

Timestopperr looks at Jay with an annoyed face, then continues.

THE TIMESTOPPER
Once only imagined in fiction through comic books and ambitious stories, the term "superhero" has now become a common term, actualized through technological advancements in recent years. This advanced technology has not been exposed to the public (for obvious reasons).

The crowd murmurs to themselves.

THE TIMESTOPPER

Keep in mind this is not a game. Most kids your age think they can join this program and get out, "Superhero Certified" in 6 months without any scratches on their faces. This will be a life-changing, life-threatening experience. Most applicants won't even pass the preliminaries. With that said, If you think this will be easy, or even difficult, you are sadly mistaken: this will be unfair. It's all to prepare you for the coming hardships of saving innocent lives. If you are not poised for the challenge, exit through the lane on your right beside the main building....and for the few of you who are willing to go through this training experience, meet in the line near the entrance for registration.

A line of high-tech looking supercomputers meant for registration create a path leading to the main entrance.

2 EXT.COSMIC TIME TECHNOLOGIES HQ-NIGHT

The camera pans to the roof of the building. Landon and Mira James, The Timestopper and the Cosmic Spark, are standing atop it. Mira pulls Landon's ear, scolding him.

MIRA

You didn't have to say it so menacingly!

She smiles.

MIRA

They'll know the program's gonna be difficult when they fail the preliminaries, that's all.

A huge chunk of the crowd leaves. Landon also smiles.

LANDON

The ones that decide to join, that is. I think the rest of them already know the gravity of the situation. And if not then, they'll learn the hard way.

3 EXT.COSMIC TIME TECHNOLOGIES-NIGHT

The scene cuts to Cheyne, noticeably worried, reluctantly walking to the registration computers. Then he looks at his gauntlets.

ZAIRE
(sarcastically)

Wow, what A nice guy. He sounds soooo friendly! takes a bite

CHEYNE
You know what...?

he now runs to the the registration computers, quickly putting in his information.

JERZEL
The heck do you think you're doing? I thought you were "scared just thinking about it"!

CHEYNE
(While typing)

Some part of me accepts this, and I don't know why, but I'm going to join the program.

ZAIRE
(While eating)

Well that's awfully un-Cheyne like.

CHEYNE
You all already know I think logically.

ZAIRE
Uh-
Relative to you guys, anyway. So, why? Why would I pass up a chance like this? Besides, we have an obligation to do this.

JERZEL
Finally! What I've been telling you all this time has finally gotten to you! You only live once!

CHEYNE

I wouldn't be able to sleep at night if I knew I had a superpower and was too selfish to use it for something other than myself.

CHEYNE

Trust me, I don't like this idea of becoming some kind of superhero. In fact, I hate it. I have goals. Responsibilities. But when The Timestopper was speaking, something came to me. With these powers, we together can change lives.

JERZEL

I think your conscience is kicking in!

Cheyne clicks the "enter" button and logs off the computer.

CHEYNE

As if you of all people would know what a conscience was.

ZAIRE

"a power that can change lives"? Guys, I just thought of the most radical name for us if we get in! How about... "The Changers"?

CHEYNE AND JERZEL

(simultaneously)

No.

ZAIRE

(heartbroken)

...well I like it.

4 INT.UNKNOWN WAREHOUSE-NIGHT

The camera zooms in on an abandoned warehouse. A grown man with dirty blonde hair and scars on his face is smoking a cigar. His eyes are never shown in the scene. Amanda is shown having a conversation with him.

ORIGAMI

So apparently that dullard is hosting a training program for "aspiring superheroes"?

AMANDA

That seems as if it were the case...
Father.

ORIGAMI

Interesting.... very, very interesting.

The end credits play. The after credits scene is a sneak-peek to an important scene later in the season. However, nothing is shown but a threatening panning shot of Amanda in She lets out a chilling and maniacal laugh before the screen fades into black.

The episode is over.
