

EXT.ALIEN CITY-Raining-NIGHT

A small alien is running through an abandoned city in an escape. What is he running from?

ALIEN:PANT* *PANT

The alien is running for a while before he gets tired and stops.

ALIEN: He'll never catch me here...

He hides behind a building and rests on his knees before looking up to a tall silhouette looking down on him. The silhouette then clenches his fists.

ALIEN: Oh, no.

SILHOUETTE: If the rest of your puny people couldn't escape from our power, what makes you think you can?

It then puts its hand up to the alien's face with an energy ball forming. While the energy ball is forming, light shows on the logo on the silhouette's head. The camera then shows part of the city in view with an explosion happening and the alien screaming in pain.

SILHOUETTE: Another one?

After it kills the alien, it spots another one running. It shoots the alien through the heart with an energy beam.

SILHOUETTE: The last of them.

Lightning strikes behind the silhouette to show that it is actually the Xlandrian king. The scene then cuts to the small xlandrian ship leaving the now barren wasteland of a planet.

SERVANT: Was the mission successful, king?

X. KING: Yeah, sure... but don't you think it's time I told Ivy what happened?

SERVANT: What happened, sir?

X. KING: To my father.

OPENING

EXT. XLANDRIA- EASTERN CEMETERY- Several years later

An Xlandrian girl is standing next to her parent's grave, embracing all of the memories she had with her parents.

GIRL: (In thoughts) I wish I could have known you more, Father. You were always thinking outside of the box, going and finding new ways to change the world, even if you didn't like to go out and conquer worlds like the Xlandrian kings before you. I guess I inherited that from you. I mean, I kinda get my strength from playing sports anyway, heh. And Mom, I guess you were doing more of Dad's job and he was doing more of yours. But I'm glad it still worked out between you two. I guess my brother's doing a good job as heir to the throne, even though I don't really like him. I'm sorry your 'secret project' didn't go as planned. Well, thanks again and bye.

GIRL: (walking to the Main Structure) My father's secret Project everyone's telling me about... What exactly was it about?

Trips over something in the leaves

Ah! What the heck did I just fall over?

Searches through leaves to find an old book

"Elemental Invention"? By "Exzavier"?
That's my father's name!

She opens the book to search through early prototypes of Elemental- Gauntlet looking cuffs.

GIRL: Looks like something my father would write about, but why would he keep this away from me?

She then finds a journal entry. She reads it aloud:

"Day 12: We just came back from the Planet Keitov with our New..."

GIRL: Why is the page torn out? was Dad trying to keep a secret from me? Come on... let me find a good page!

She finds a full page.

"Day 84. Having trouble finishing my invention, I'm traveling to the foreign Planet E-arth to seek assistance. Hopefully they also know the universal language, English. I hope to be able to write in this book again."

GIRL: Wait... THAT'S IT! My Father was traveling to that alien planet for assistance and that's where his ship malfunctioned and exploded! So, his secret experiment should be near that planet! Don't worry Father, I won't disappoint!

The scene cuts to Earth.

EXT.PLANET EARTH-J-CITY-HIGH NOON

The scene cuts to a weird house. Three teenagers, named ZAIRE, JERZEL, and CHEYNE are just sitting around, waiting for guests to arrive to their party.

ZAIRE: Yes! This party is gonna be so radical!

CHEYNE:(Yelling From other room) Umm... Who says the word Radical anymore?

ZAIRE: Hey... I do. But anyway, I can't wait to play some games while we wait.

JERZEL: You can say whatever you want. As long as we're playing Super Mash Fighters!

ZAIRE: Sweet!

Zaire plugs in his GamePrism and starts playing the game with Jerzel. They start playing for hours. Meanwhile, in another room, Cheyne tries to do his homework and slowly gets frustrated. After a while, he finally snaps.

CHEYNE: Can you guys not make so much noise! This model isn't going to build itself!

JERZEL: What are you even doing, anyway?

It's the beginning of summer.

CHEYNE: A stupid project that I have to get done!

JERZEL: You DO realize that we have two and a half months to do that, right? You should have some fun before it's too late.

CHEYNE: I like to get my work done as soon as possible. And besides, my project is gonna look way better than yours.

JERZEL: Yep. And yesterday I sprouted wings and flew.

ZAIRE: Jeez, why don't you guys kiss already? You sound like an old married couple! Let's keep the game going!

CHEYNE: You're just saying that because your school didn't give you a project!

ZAIRE: Yep... And I'm glad. Look at the time! It's only 4-o'clock! The guests won't start coming in another 4 hours!

CHEYNE: Wow. We have way too much time on our hands this summer.

ZAIRE: No, More like on our controllers.

JERZEL: We can go outside, But I don't know of a place where we can explore until the party guests arrive.

ZAIRE: Oh, but I do.

JERZEL: And where exactly is that?

EXT.LOCAL FOREST- LATE AFTERNOON

The very lucky teens are walking through the forest quietly.

Whispering

CHEYNE: I guess my summer project can wait a little.

JERZEL: What are we supposed to do here-Wait! I have an idea!

She takes out her guitar and starts playing music. The animals in the forest notice the music coming from somewhere and look up.

CHEYNE: Really, Jerzel? You take that thing EVERYWHERE!

JERZEL: You've GOTTA admit, it was a good idea!

ZAIRE: Why are we whispering?

No one answers.

ZAIRE: Ha-Ha! Funny, guys, but I'm being serious!

CHEYNE: Let's keep going.

The characters move on and after awhile, they encounter an alien looking case.

ZAIRE: What the heck is that?

CHEYNE: This is obviously an alien artifact. Iis wonder what's inside.

JERZEL: Oh, please. Don't you think if an alien artifact landed on the Earth, the government would find it?

ZAIRE: Makes sense, but I don't know.

JERZEL: Although it would be cool if this was extra-terrestrial.

ZAIRE:Excuse me, but what are we gonna tell our parents? That we found an alien artifact? Not like they're gonna believe us.

JERZEL: But if we turn it into the police, they're probably think we're pranksters or something.

Cheyne and Jerzel run to the artifact and Cheyne opens it by pressing a button. Their lies three pairs of gauntlet- like cuffs.

Cheyne: Zaire?! Why aren't you coming!

Zaire: I don't mess with aliens, dude! The black guy always gets killed.

Cheyne looks at Zaire.

Cheyne: I'm black too, genius!

ZAIRE:I can tell there's gonna be problems on our hands really soon.

ZAIRE:No,No. More like on our wrists! Get it, because,like, cuffs? No? Well.. I'm going to shut it now.

CHEYNE: Gosh darnit.

EPISODE 2

INT.XLANDRIA MAIN STRUCTURE-DAY

The Xlandrian girl is revealed to be Ivy, the younger sister of the Xlandrian King. She is getting ready to leave the planet to go to Earth and find the 'secret project'.

IVY:(while packing things in bag) Gotta hurry up! Hurry! I'm finally going to find the project my father's been working on all his life!

When she finishes packing her things, she runs to a small ship.

XLANDRIAN KING: And where exactly are you going, dear sister?

IVY: Why do you need to know? Focus on your own things, and I'll focus on mine.

XLANDRIAN KING: Jeez, Ivy, what a buzzkill. I can never get along with you.

Ivy darts an annoyed look and leaves in her ship.

XLANDRIAN KING: (In thoughts) That little sister of mine. I hope she knows I'm going to Take that puny earth over soon enough.

SERVANT: How do you know she is going to that planet, my liege? And if you knew where she is going, why did you ask?

XLANDRIAN KING: You'll see. You'll see soon enough.

The scene cuts to Ivy tapping her foot while sitting in her ship.

EXT.LOCAL FOREST- LATE AFTERNOON

ZAIRE: We're so gonna regret this.

CHEYNE: What do these even do?

JERZEL: I dunno. Let's see!

ZAIRE and CHEYNE: WAIT NO!!

Jerzel attempts to take one of the gauntlets, but fails. A big blast pushes all three of them back with all of them hitting the ground. The gauntlets then read out: ACTIVATE

'OPERATION ELEMENTAL' on their screens.
A flash of light appears.

When the smoke clears and the light dims, The camera pans down to Cheyne's arms, which the gauntlets are now attached to. In the background, it shows Zaire panicking to figure out what the machines do. He notices a faint figure.

ZAIRE: Guys, what the heckle is that?

Cheyne also notices the figure slowly zooming in on them.

CHEYNE: A BEAR!

ZAIRE: RUN!

The teenagers start running as fast as they can.

JERZEL: Guys, let's use rocks to stun it!

They try to hold the bear off using rocks, but the bear shrugs them off. They keep running for about a minute, but for some reason, Zaire's rocks start becoming a lot more effective than the others'.

ZAIRE: The rocks I'm throwing.. They're starting to damage the bear a lot more than before!

JERZEL: Mine don't seem to be getting more effective!

CHEYNE: Mine either...!

The bear gets triggered and attempts to jump and attack Zaire.

CHEYNE: Dude! Look out!

Jerzel jumps between the bear and Zaire. Suddenly, fire comes out of her hand and she punches and hurts the bear. The bear then runs away.

ZAIRE: What the heck!?

JERZEL: My hand! My hand is on fire!
But somehow... It's not hurting.

ZAIRE: Wicked!

CHEYNE: Umm... That's bad enough, but I think we might have a bigger problem.

The camera cuts to a view of the forest on fire. The three stand there, thinking of a way to stop the fire.

CHEYNE: How are we gonna stop this?

ZAIRE: I've got it! If I can strengthen rocks, which come from the ground, Jerzel can manipulate fire...

CHEYNE: Of course!

ZAIRE:...then you must have something to do with water or air! These alien devices give us elemental powers!

CHEYNE:I won't be surprised if this works. Let's give it a shot!

ZAIRE: Don't die!

Cheyne puts his hands up to the fire, hoping for some superpowers to emerge. But unfortunately, nothing comes.

CHEYNE: Dang it, it didn't work! Maybe I wasn't concentrating-

JERZEL: Awesome!

A giant water blast gets shot from Cheyne As it puts out some of the fire.

ZAIRE: You got it, dude! You just needed to put some more effort, but dew you, you know, want to put the REST of the fire out? Water you doing?

CHEYNE: Your puns are scaring me more than the forest fire is!

JERZEL: Yeah, he calls it Dry Humor.

ZAIRE: Get it, dry?

Cheyne puts out the rest of the fire in a few seconds, but him and Zaire notice something. The sound of police sirens becomes audible and it's moving closer. Off screen, the new super humans run home.

ZAIRE: Oh Carp! It's the 5-0!

CHEYNE: Please stop it with the puns.

EXT.PLANET EARTH-J-CITY-JERZEL'S HOUSE-NIGHT

The teens sit on Jerzel's couch silently.

ZAIRE: So... We're now runaways. I'm gonna start packing.

No one says anything.

Well... I'm just going to start.

CHEYNE: There's still some time until the party-

JERZEL: I'm going to have to postpone it. This day has become too weird.

CHEYNE: Yeah, I think It's time for me to go home.

ZAIRE: Same for me.

JERZEL: Smell you guys later.

Cheyne and Zaire go to their houses.

EXT.PLANET EARTH-LOCAL FOREST-LATE NIGHT

Ivy makes a quiet landing in the Local Forest on planet Earth, but gets found by a horde of police.

COP: Bob, so when are you're going to pay me back? you lost the bet when I told you the Warriors were going to win.

BOB: Well, Smith, I'm still waiting for my donut you owe me jerk.

As the cops keep on walking and investigating they see Ivy.

SMITH: Did you create this forest fire, young lady?

IVY: Forest fire? Never even heard of it.

BOB: (to himself) I can see the doubt in her eyes...

BOB: Your little prank is over! It's time to take your costume off!

IVY: What costume?

SMITH: Don't play dumb with us. Put your hands up where we can see them!

Ivy crosses her arms. The cops by then have had enough and puts their guns up to Ivy. She walks up to the gun.

IVY: What is this strange equipment?

SMITH: Holy Crap!

COP 3: (While sweating) We'll have no choice!

IVY: At least let me get my things out of my ship!

COP 1: (While looking at ship) It is an alien! FIREEE!

The cops start shooting at her, but she keeps deflecting the bullets.

IVY: Wow, do you humans always solve your problems with violence?

She then kneels on the ground, ready to use a powerful attack. She slams her hand on the ground, and a small shockwave appears. The shockwave then knocks all the cops out.

IVY: I've always thought humans were strong, but nothing is stopping me from my goal!

But she notices a trail of rocks on the ground.

IVY: I wonder where these lead to...
