

2025 Holiday Wishlist and Secret Santa

Written by Vix (me)

NOTE: You don't need to draw everything on the list if you don't want to. You can choose only one if you want to, or draw more than one if you want to, it is up to you. I was just letting you know that this is my Secret Santa and holiday wishlist. This will be deleted/unpublished after the holidays are over, but I am letting you know for now.

It's me, Vix.

You may know that I'm open to drawing art trades, and this includes Secret Santa and similar events.

This is my holiday wishlist (including Secret Santa) for this year.

Artist Information:

Username: DojoVictoryFox

Drawing style: Various

Skill level: Advanced

Traditional or digital illustration: I can do both.

Preferred media that you would like to use: Digital drawing with Clip Studio Paint and color with Photoshop.

Character(s): Misuli Crocuta, Cyan Crocuta, Kivuli Crocuta, Vosso, Aquila Eagle, Krevan Redwood, Origo von Jackal, Bontu Gyps, Nilo Gumu Niloticus, Mabaya, Lungile Lycaon, Razor Leo, Imbali Leo and Foxeline "Foxy" Redhurst. All fourteen are original characters of mine from my own original series. You can read more about them here.

Theme: Holiday-themed (either Thanksgiving, Christmas or New Year's)

Anything that you would like to add?: Misuli is the main protagonist of my original series. Cyan is Misuli's husband. Kivuli is Misuli's autistic younger sister and second in command. Aquila and Vosso are Misuli's sidekicks. Krevan, Origo, Bontu and Nilo are Kivuli's sidekicks. Mabaya is Lungile's sidekick, and advisor to Misuli and Kivuli. Razor, Imbali and Lungile are Misuli's and Kivuli's mentors. Foxeline is the guide and close friend of the Norm Breaker squad. Misuli, along with the rest of the Norm Breaker team, are celebrating the holidays during the winter.

Now, if you want to draw any one of my original characters, here are some rules.

Important Rules Before Drawing

1. Never redesign them such as modifying their appearance or anything that may compromise their original design. However, it is fine if you draw them to be more easy to you such as simplifying their design. I also drew model sheets and written biographies for most of my characters so they're a must-read before you want to draw them. I know that you don't like being told what to do, but I was just giving out some truth.

2. No NSFW (not safe for work) art of the underage (such as Vosso) and/or asexual characters (such as Kivuli) You know such stuff is wrong.

3. No NSFW (not safe for work) art of me, period. I am the sex-repulsed flavor of asexual, and will never tolerate myself nor the things I create being used in sexual content. Shipping me with someone (i.e. users, celebrities, other people, fictional characters) is illegal and not acceptable. Also, I do not wear midriff-barring or any other fetish-related outfits. Same goes for underage and other asexual characters.

4. It is not okay to change the characters' species. My characters' species should be left alone for a good reason.

5. Underage and/or asexual characters (including myself) are not allowed to wear skimpy clothing. This is an important boundary.

6. Underage and/or asexual characters (including myself) should never be shipped/paired up with themselves or other characters/people/etc.

Especially since I am immune to being shipped.

7. No bad crossovers of my characters/series with those I dislike (i.e. The Lion King/Guard, Sonichu, So... You're a Cartoonist?). Unless it's a catharsis pic of my characters beating the snot out of those I dislike.

- 7. Absolutely no traitors/betrayals when it comes to Norm Breaker's good/protagonist characters due to the entire Norm Breaker squad having strong bonds. And yes, this includes Mabaya, despite his "evil" looks and name (which is the Swahili word for "evil"), he is a good guy and not a villain. Same with the rest of the Norm Breaker squadron and their allies.
- 9. Official couples in Norm Breaker (such as Misuli x Cyan and Razor x Imbali) are not allowed to break up nor paired with anyone else other than each other. This rule is important.
- 10. Hate art of me or any good character that I created is off limits and will not be tolerated. I'm not a lolcow. I'm a good person and I don't deserve to be mocked nor attacked.

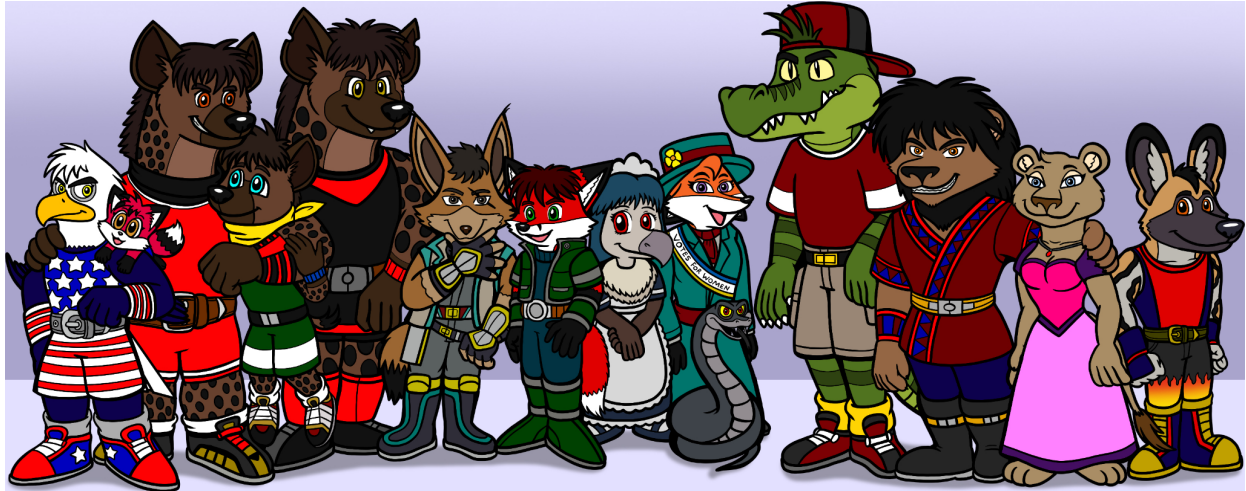

Otherwise, have fun.

Wishlist gift art and Secret Santa

And now... My full wishlist for gift art (and Secret Santa) that you can draw for me during the holiday season.

Nice art of my characters

My preferred choice would be any one of the Norm Breaker squad, or the Service Dog squad, or Foxeline Redhurst. Drawing myself/my sona would be nice, too, but it's all up to you.

References and other information on my characters can be found on the following links:

Nice art of myself

Any one of my forms is fine, as long as it's respectful since all forms of my sona is the same person as my real life self.

You can also draw me (in any form) wearing my new Geek outfit.

But remember to be respectful like I said before.

Art of my favorite fictional characters

If drawing original characters is not your thing, then a drawing of any one of my favorite fictional characters would also be a nice gift for me, too. Note that I happen to like lots of video game characters, but I'm still giving you a variety to choose from.

FAVORITE CHARACTER BINGO

My top favorite fictional character is none other than Fox McCloud from Star Fox.

Do not forget this fact if you decide to draw fan art as opposed to original characters.

Crossover fanart that's an appreciation of all consoles

As a multi-platform gamer who plays PlayStation, Xbox, Nintendo and more. I'd like a redraw of this artwork of mine, or at least, draw a group pic of Mario, Astro Bot and Master Chief with their respective consoles.

This artwork of mine is a great piece featuring Mario, Master Chief, and Astro Bot. The way I've incorporated their respective consoles and controllers is a really cool touch. I also had more ideas of fanart featuring the three if you're open to drawing one of these ideas:

1. Arcade Face-Off: Master Chief, Mario, and Astro Bot all hanging out at an arcade. Maybe Astro is completely mystified by the physical controls, Mario is a pro at a classic racing game, and Master Chief is an absolute master at a light-gun shooter.

2. Game Night: The three are relaxing on a couch, controllers in hand, playing a completely neutral, non-console-specific game, like a party game or a puzzle game. You could have them all reacting differently to the action on the screen.

3. The Cookout: The heroes are having a barbecue. Master Chief is tending the grill with a stern focus, Mario is preparing a massive platter of mushrooms, and Astro Bot is... well, maybe he's trying to use his head as a portable fan for the coals.

4. The Giant Robot: They have to team up to take on a massive, generic robot or monster. Master Chief provides the firepower and strategy, Mario is jumping and navigating the environment to find the weak points, and Astro Bot is using his gadgets to disable systems from the inside.

5. Escaping the Labyrinth: The trio finds themselves trapped in a mysterious maze. Each hero's unique abilities are needed to get out. Mario's platforming skills, Master Chief's combat and tactical knowledge, and Astro Bot's varied gadgets are all essential.

6. The Unruly Glitch: A giant glitch or a corrupted code is threatening to consume everything. You could draw them fighting the glitch, with each of them trying to restore order in their own way. Maybe Master Chief with a powerful shot, Mario with a special power-up, and Astro Bot with a system-repairing tool.

Kitsune cooking up some holiday ramen or miso soup

This kitsune is also one of my original characters (not fanart) so a nice little holiday gift picture is also a nice idea.

And that is it for now.

If there is something you would like me to draw for you in return when it comes to anything wishlist/Secret Santa related, be sure to let me know.

Other ideas for gifts

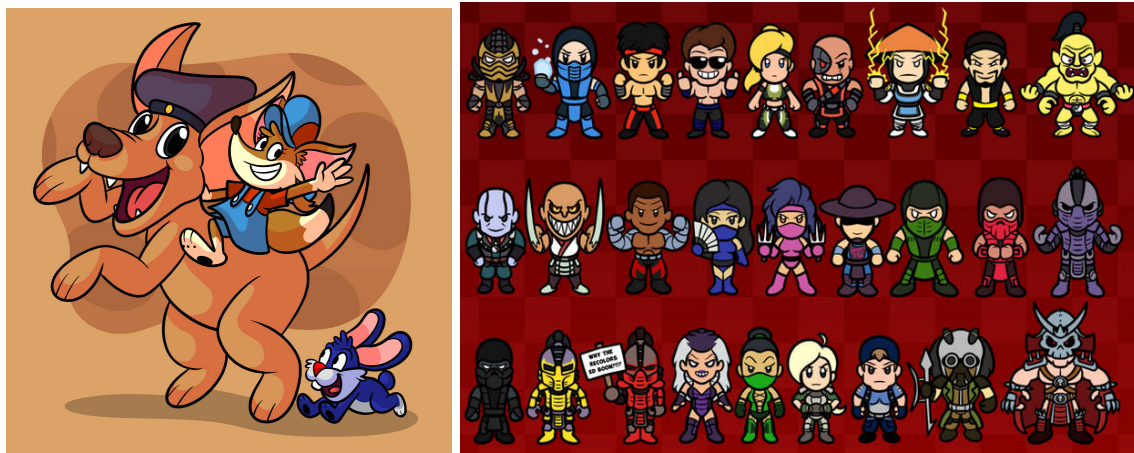

That aside, there are also a few other things that I would also enjoy getting for Christmas. You don't have to do it if you don't want to. If you rather just draw art instead, then that is fine, too.

Commissioned art paid by other users

While I currently don't take paid commissions myself as I still haven't set up a digital wallet (i.e. PayPal, Apple Pay, Google Pay, Venmo) yet, my followers and other users are free to commission other artists to draw my characters as long as they read and follow my rules of drawing them (see above).

Examples of commissions paid by Harejules for others:

A follower of mine under the name Harejules (on DeviantArt and Bluesky) is known to pay other artists (notably CrispyToastYT, who left DA and is now on other sites such as Newgrounds) to draw commissions for them, many of which involves artists' characters that Harejules does not own (notably a birthday commission involving the characters of Spongefox and Genzoman, seen here). Would love it if Harejules would commission CTYT to draw one of my characters for Christmas, but it's up to both users to decide). These are Harejules' accounts in case you're interested in saying hello.

Here are his socials:

And then the next one is hype to me knowing how much I love Star Fox and it would be a dream come true if this happens, if one of my moots is willing to pay $70 dollars...

I later found out that the designer behind Star Fox, F-Zero and more, Takaya Imamura, has created a PayPal commission request form for drawing portraits.

https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSe_ncyPrJv9_41_5vOJVNcJ5BTAjBdWmAXL0ADt1fjO3VdD3A/viewform

If you have a PayPal account and are willing to spend an amount of dollars, go for it.

I would be interested in a portrait of my sona (or at least my anthro fox self) the most.

Not sure if that is likely, but seeing how he drew Estelle Ellis as her sona a.k.a. Krystelle, anything is possible.

<https://x.com/RealKrystalFox/status/1986123328537698634#m>

Not sure if this will ever happen, but let me know if it does.

If you do commission these artists then I hope to get the commissioned art of my character digitally since I do not want to share my home address with any stranger whatsoever (it stays private and forever private). Keep my boundaries in mind.

Digital e-Gift Cards

I mostly buy my new video games digitally these days and I also run on subscriptions (i.e. Nintendo Switch Online, Xbox Game Pass Ultimate) so if you don't mind spending the unused extra dollars you have, it would be very nice of you to send me an e-Gift Card as long as it's legal and not a fraud/scam.

There are legit sites and sources where you can buy me an e-Gift Card or two (by buying them for yourself) and send the codes to me as a direct message or note.

Some rules regarding this:

1. If you need to send me an e-mail, then send me a note/DM if you want to know my e-mail address since I will never share it in public, and I especially will never share it with anyone I don't trust. The golden rule is that you have no right to share my e-mail address, it's important that it stays private, not public.

2. I live in the United States of America, so be sure to get the digital e-cards in U.S. dollar format.

I hope it helps.

Here are the links to legal sources to all the gift cards and such that I want, so once you buy them yourself, send me the codes as an e-mail (note me) or just as a direct message/note:

Now with everything said...

I hope that I'll get at least one of these gifts done and thank you all for your support over the years.

Wishing you the best of luck and happy holidays.
