

Preface

TW for topics of child rape, grooming, slurs, sexual topics and fetishes

Hello there internet. I want to preface this and say I am probably a moron for making this document and deciding to shove my foot into the door of this whole situation since I am frankly barely involved but it felt necessary after the whole 4 months of harassment I have seen Cyberweasel89 do to myself and others. I am frankly still incredibly upset, hurt and disgusted by her own post on me since a lot of the things she decided to accuse me of are flat out untrue and downright defamatory. Frankly it has been “minor” but I am not going to act like I wasn’t emotionally hurt and now that I decided to actually see if Cyber has still been posting to see her using Reddit to try and gain sympathy has made me want to sit down and type this all out. Cyber isn’t a victim anymore, she is making herself the “victim”, multiple people have told her to stop, simply stop mentioning them and she has been the one to constantly bring peoples names up first without any real ways to properly add the other side of the story.

I am also not missing how much of an absolute waste of time and energy this is for me but I am fully sick of seeing her continue this for months on end and trying to use spaces that are meant to be safe for survivors and queer people and try to use it for some sort of pity. These two posts are what really made me want to sit down and write this especially after her most recent wave of spam on BlueSky and after I found out she DMed a minor knowingly on Reddit descriptions of CSA, it is covered in more detail in the bottom reddit section.

https://web.archive.org/web/20251105191342/https://old.reddit.com/r/AnarchyTrans/comments/1oh76hv/i_cant_even_feel_safe_in_trans_spaces/

https://web.archive.org/web/20251105191500/https://old.reddit.com/r/AnarchyTrans/comments/1omgbb8/suddenly_banned_from_the_orchard/

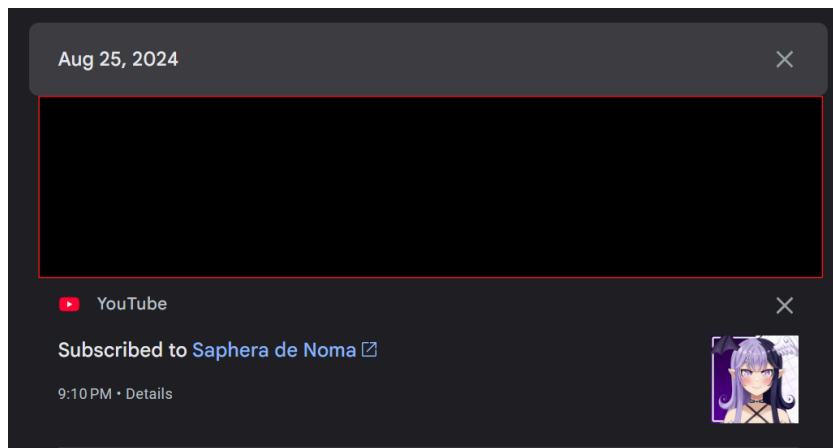

Since I am not involved with a lot of the main situation I want to focus on my personal harassment I have gotten from her but I will pull relevant information when I need to for added details. I want to emphasize this as well, this is all publicly available information. Any information I add is fully available online either posted on said website for everyone to see or public archive databases like internet archive, ghost archives and archive today.

To add as well I will be adding information from KiwiFarms. Note, I do not condone KiwiFarms in any way. Excuse the language but I fucking hate that website, it is 4chan on steroids and a disgusting far-left pipeline and a incredibly transphobic hell and I will never condone doxxing no matter how shitty a person is. The only reason I am bringing it is up because Cyberweasel89 has brought KiwiFarms up for doxing her, which I can confirm but you are fully unable to view this thread if you do not have an account (although frankly I can't fully confirm in the slightest if the person listed is her or not and I do not plan on looking further into it), I have used a throw away with 10min email to find added info specifically for this document and I want to be fully upfront about this since Cyberweasel was called out on KiwiFarms for actively going on there, using slurs and trying to infiltrate the sight to dox Saphera. No one ever contacted KiwiFarms from Saph's community, a random user happened to find her interacting with trolls on a random video, I will mention this later to add to what I have witnessed and what I have seen Cyber do. Also while I absolutely hate KF they do unfortunately have fairly accurate information, (seriously all of them need other hobbies)

How I learned about Cyberweasel89

I originally was a passive watcher of the vtuber Saphera de Noma and I have only been subscribed since Aug 25th of last year and I would watch her videos as background noise. For people who do not know her content Saphera de Noma is what a lot of people consider a "Dramatuber" where she often covers online controversies and dramas. I want to add she is considered a more "trusted" dramatuber source in the sense she is known to do in depth research in the same realm/level as Mujin and Swoop.

I however had not been following any of her socials until after she made a video on Cyberweasel89. I hadn't been aware but when Saphera posted a video on the Rev and Kirsche situation Cyber commented and proceeded to interact with trolls and then when she disliked how Saphera was moderating her youtube comments instead of simply not engaging anymore proceeded to spam people on Bluesky and say Saphera was a Nazi defender. Saphera did an entire expose video on Cyberweasel after having warned her multiple times to stop the spam and harassment.

I myself didn't get spammed during this time since I had not followed Saphera on Bluesky originally so I did not get put into the crossfire unlike a lot of her followers and mutuals. I officially became aware of Cyberweasel when I saw Saphera's expose video where she went into Cyber's harassment as well as Cyber's past on DeviantArt knowingly interacting with minors in fetish spaces. Saphera had given Cyber multiple warnings and had only made this video after a month of harassment towards herself and her viewers. Her video goes fully in depth on this and while it is relevant plenty of people have called Cyberweasel89 out on her behavior around minors knowingly in the past, Cyber likes to claim she didn't know but it's flat out false and easily provable as she admitted to it herself in a 142 page document she made in response to Saphera that is now deleted, but I want to focus on my own personal harassment and what I had seen and found most recently on my own and her current behavior.

I want to add as well I am not the first to be harassed by proxy from her. In the YT video Saphera made multiple people have added they've also been personally harassed by Cyber. I am not censoring their users since they did make these comments publicly and it's just to help add to Cyber's pattern of behavior that myself and others have experienced from her.

@Nairod_Pics 1 month ago (edited)

I didn't know about Cyberweasel89's case, at first she asked a few questions about my content(I'm a 26 year old NSFW artist)

But today I received messages from Cyberweasel89 a few minutes, her messages were accusing two friends of mine of supporting a doxxer, and directly accusing my friends of transphobic comments.

Of course I asked those friends for evidence to know if she was saying the truth or not(of course I didn't believe her, I just asked my friends if they had an advice)

Of course, now with that info, I blocked her immediately.

(BTW, I have screenshots of the conversation)

I better check comments on previous on DA to see if I have a comment from her, to delete it.

@SapheraGameplay 2 months ago

Hi! Don't know if you'll see this but Cyberweasel89 has now accused me of being a secret account of yours made to harass her. She has written to me both on reddit and here on my youtube channel starting to harass me because she thinks I'm you. As someone who has only had minimal interactions online with this person, I can already tell she is just an annoying parasite. I'm so sorry that you've had to deal with her for this long. I hope she stops, you really don't ...

it's so funny reading through these comments because cyber and her posse did the SAME shit to me back in 2016. I tried to discreetly distance myself from her without making a big public stink out of it, and they turned it into a community-wide witchhunt and harassed me for an entire weekend simply because I did not properly justify myself to her and earn her permission to not be her friend. Mind you; we weren't even acquaintances at the time, we just both existed in the same online space, and I could tell just as an observer that I wanted nothing to do with her.

Back then, I told them all they were obsessed with calling people out, and here they are a decade later STILL obsessed with calling people out. Time is a flat circle.

@NatalieRath 2 months ago (edited)

This reddit PERSONALLY MESSAGED me on reddit to share HOW BAD YOU ARE.

I am trying to do research and I bumped into you.

@ozmainthedark 3 months ago

I feel like I've heard of Cyber Bully '89. That was back with LiveJournal and when I wrote poetry on DeviantArt. That person is like a legend of being awful. I think my friends did poetry and drawings on DeviantArt back then too. That's...wow...impressively long time to be awful and not change.

@NasteaNestea 3 months ago

She's still going at it. She responded to a reddit post I made around a month ago when the Asmongold community launched their harassment campaign against NyaraVT. My post was along the lines of "yeah, it's really bad that people with a massive following can pretty much get away with this," and had no mention of you whatsoever.

CyberWeasel89, just yesterday, made a multi-paragraph post about "Nyara's close friends with a cisgender dramatur" and the gist of it is basically on the assumption I have no idea who she (CyberWeasel89) is and who you are.

@PineappleSyrup 3 months ago (edited)

BROOOO WHAT!?!?! I knew some of this but I never knew it went this deep. This woman was harassing the hell out of me over a meme on my art discord server for over a MONTH! I knew she was crazy because I did some digging about her myself and uncovered a big portion of the stuff in this video myself but I never knew she was THIS crazy OMG! So glad someone finally did a video on her, she is CRAZY. I only came across this video because this woman is trying to harass me AGAIN, after I've been gone from the art scene for the last 2 years SHE CAME BACK TO HARRASS ME. I haven't thought about her and moved on from it after she left my discord and harassed me, but I guess I lived rent free in her head those 2 years.

@KaguraGames 3 months ago

Damn, they pulled the same kind of behavior with reviews on our games on Steam.

@VillyVespertine 4 months ago

Oooh lord, this is a name I'm more than familiar with. She groomed me back when I was 15/16, she was obsessed with telling me all of her fetishes and bragging to me (a teenager) how she was the horniest motherfucker alive.

She did the same thing with saying I'm pushing the LGBT Grooming Conspiracy against her after I called her a groomer and cut her off, despite being trans myself.

@TheRealPaultergeist 4 months ago (edited)

It's so crazy that I stumble upon this. This person actually groomed me and a close friend of mine back when we were still in high school. YOU actually used the Deviantart comment thread back from 2015 between me and her.

I was the one in the Scary Bear thread. I'm 25 now and I gotta admit I'm really embarrassed that this is how I used to act at a time that doesn't even feel like it was that long ago. I've come a long way since then and have learned a lot. I've learned that the things I said and participated in back then were not appropriate, especially considering I was a minor at the time. I'm used these experiences to help others at that age avoid similar situations. As for Cyber, years later she accused me of some bullshit I can't even remember and cut ties with me before I even had the chance to cut ties with her. It's crazy how even the people she's groomed aren't even safe from her shit. But either way it's a tie I'm better off having severed. I just wish I could go back and tell my younger self to run, and that this wasn't OK.

Additionally, in the Comic I made introducing my friend to DA back then, yes she is a friend I had irl. We didn't go to school together, but she was roughly the same age as me. I wanna say she was a year older than me. I can't exactly remember, but the point is she was still underaged at the time, and to this day I regret having put her in that situation. I wish I'd known better. Thankfully, she didn't stick around too long for her to start a problem with Cyber. Kerry and I have unfortunately grown a bit distant over the years, but that's sadly common when it comes to childhood friends, y'know?

How I got involved

I hadn't commented on Saph's original video when this all popped up or Saph's vid she made going over the 142 page document Cyberweasel made on her where Cyberweasel fully admits to speaking with minors saying "she didn't know better" despite being a full grown adult. I only then decided to follow Saph on bluesky originally intending to be a fly on the wall until I saw SilvySparks video where Cyber harassed him and then I did interact one time directly with Cyberweasel when she commented and spammed under a short Saphera had made.

@Cyberweasel89 3 months ago (edited)

You think EVERYONE is me and admit to being a cyberbully who thinks "stay away from kids" is "within reason" to accuse you of.

So of course I live rent-free in your head, since you claim everyone is my sockpuppet and me, despite having no proof for such a baseless conspiracy.

Even now, on posts that have nothing to do with me, your fans will insist even someone with no relation to me is somehow me. Your fans are that sexually obsessed with me.

You accuse me of being delusional, yet you delusionally see me in every single person, think everyone is somehow me, and think every account is a sockpuppet of me?

Besides, how was I supposed to "cancel" and "harass" you as one person with sockpuppets? Do I have an army or am I alone? Which is it and is your accusation of "delusions" just you projecting? Because I notice just about all your insults are based in ableism, then you claim you have Autism and such to deflect it. You have a disability, yet you use ableist insults?

Oh yeah. And you claim that me not knowing someone was underage 10 years ago means I deserve deplatforming today. Yet you claim Pippa's Holocaust denial had a statute of limitations of 3 years. Which is it? Does criticism have a statute of limitations or not?

@spiderleamer 3 months ago

There is full proof of you in the video acknowledging they're a minor on DA and in your own response doc, Saph recorded it all. Seriously you are only making this worse for yourself, get offline and go get some real professional help. The only reason you got exposed was because of your very long history of harassing people and the fact you harassed multiple people for disagreeing with you and the fact you are still latching onto this after months isn't healthy in the slightest when all you had to do was either ignore it or apologize. That's it.

>I'm asexual and so lack the sexual desire to find others attractive or sexual urges for sex. Saphera says she avoided bringing this up in her video.

Sounds like you're just a political actor who is looking for excuses to harass others. It's sad, because you ultimately aren't doing anything to help people. You just want to feel righteous. I pity you, especially since you believe anything a dramatuber tells you to think. A dramatuber who is constantly contradicting her views and openly brags about being a cyberbully. I guess you're just gullible?

@Cyberweasel89 3 months ago

@spiderleamer But Saphera says you're my sockpuppet.

Frankly the only reason I ever decided to make a comment was due to the fact 1 Cyberweasel fully admitted to what she did and then was claiming Saph was her downfall when Cyber kept spamming and interacting with people in the first place and 2 I have personally dealt with people like Cyber in my personal life and I was frankly triggered seeing someone like her harass a creator just because they got exposed after being warned multiple times to stop. I can't help but add no one ever brought up Cyber being a CSA survivor, she is the one constantly bringing that up and being asexual and that since she never actually met anyone IRL she couldn't be a predator in any way, of course all of that isn't a valid excuse in the slightest. At that point I thought she was being a troll or was mentally not able to handle being online so I added the CDC link for mental resources and decided to fully ignore her. (Also if you are struggling with anything I do actually recommend the CDC list of mental health resources to help you find resources in your area)

Up until now I still am advocating for Cyberweasel to get offline and frankly seek real professional help. She claims she is in therapy but frankly if you showed any of this to a licensed therapist I am 95% sure they'd also say get offline. It's not healthy for anybody and I am frankly sick of her using every excuse in the book to try and disregard her behavior.

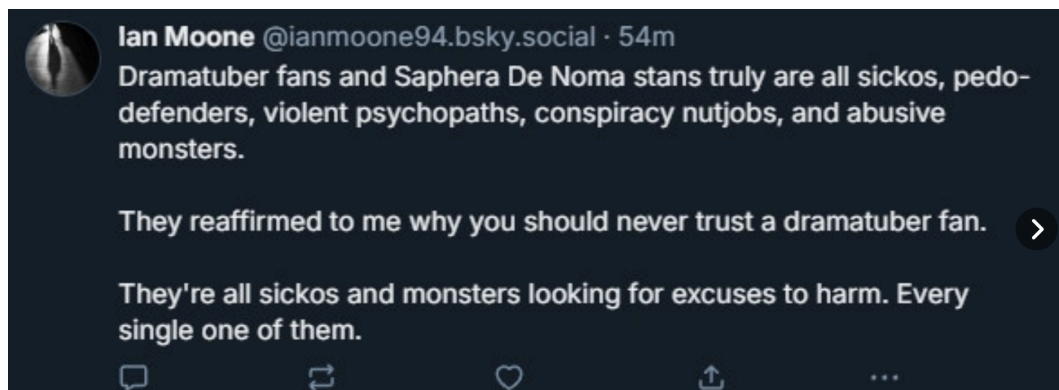

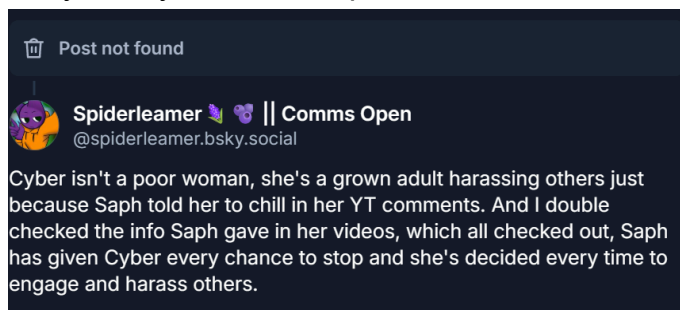

Around that time I decided to follow Saph on BlueSky mostly to be a fly on the wall and simply watch updates once in a while not thinking much of it. I rarely ever get involved directly in any online drama and decided this was interesting enough to comment on a post once in a while and call it a day leaving all of this as some online nonsense. I am not going to lie I frankly thought Cyberweasel had to be trolling at this point since I didn't think anyone could keep digging a hole for themselves this badly.

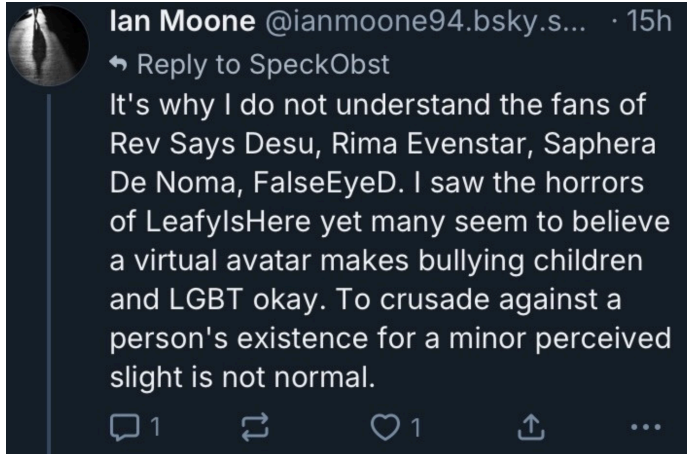

I also briefly interacted on the r/youtubedrama post but that was soon all locked down by mods and I just rolled my eyes since it went petty over there fast.

The Start of the Harassment

Since that one youtube comment I had made and vaguely interacted with Cyber I then saw a comment her original troll account, Ian Moone, had made. The account has now been deleted by BlueSky but I was spammed 30+ times by this account. To add on how people figured out this account was Cyberweasel, she is literally the ONLY person on the internet who has directly spammed Saphera and Nayra by proxy (for some weird reason that's another rabbit hole) and she also types in an incredibly specific way. I originally thought it was just a troll being, well a troll, so I decided “why not I have nothing else to do today” and engaged. However what I thought would be a limited back and forth i got spammed 30 times over and over and eventually I realized it was Cyber and started shutting it down by only replying with CDC resources.

To add Cyberweasel has made as far as I know 4 different spam accounts on BlueSky, The Unknown, Ian Moone94, All-Roads and her most recent VictoryBuster which was a straight up fetish account. She's also used Alt's on Reddit and Twitter as well. This account wasn't archived but I am listing all of my replies + some of the screenshots that were saved so you get the idea of what she was spamming me with. I fully thought this was a troll too since the account was newly made and just spamming away to anyone who responded to them so I wasn't taking it seriously at all at first.

Jesus! I was searching one of the dramaturgers I know of to block them and saw a ton of heinous posts from fans of hers.

I want to ask them about the situation but I just know that the second I either ask or show any skepticism or follow-up question they will become paranoid about me and target me.

Never said she raped anyone, said she was a Pedo and serial harasser. Not the flex you think it is when multiple people have been harassed by Cyber and called her out on DA where her account has been deactivated. It's not a flex to defend a predator.

I just got into an argument about Cyberweasel89 over Vic Mignogna. She claims that she was a

Just to add this is where she started claiming you have to physically touch a minor to really be a pedophile (which is bullshit) and started trying to claim I was the aggressor, she was actually the one to reply to my comment first to a comment I had made on one of Saphera's BlueSky post basically going "Damn, thats crazy". I don't quite remember why the topic of my gender came up but I vaguely recall it was some nonsense about me somehow being a man and therefore I was a creep. Again really dumb highschool insults

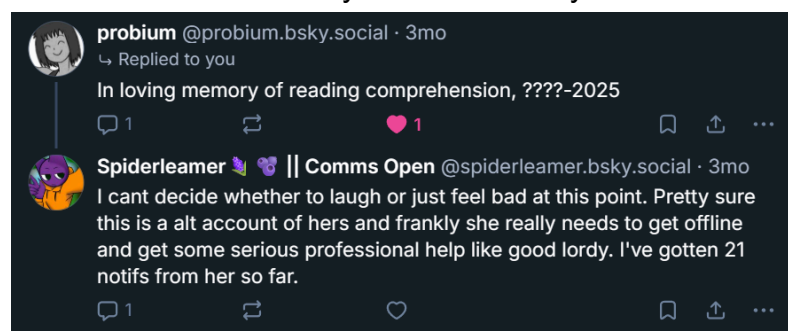

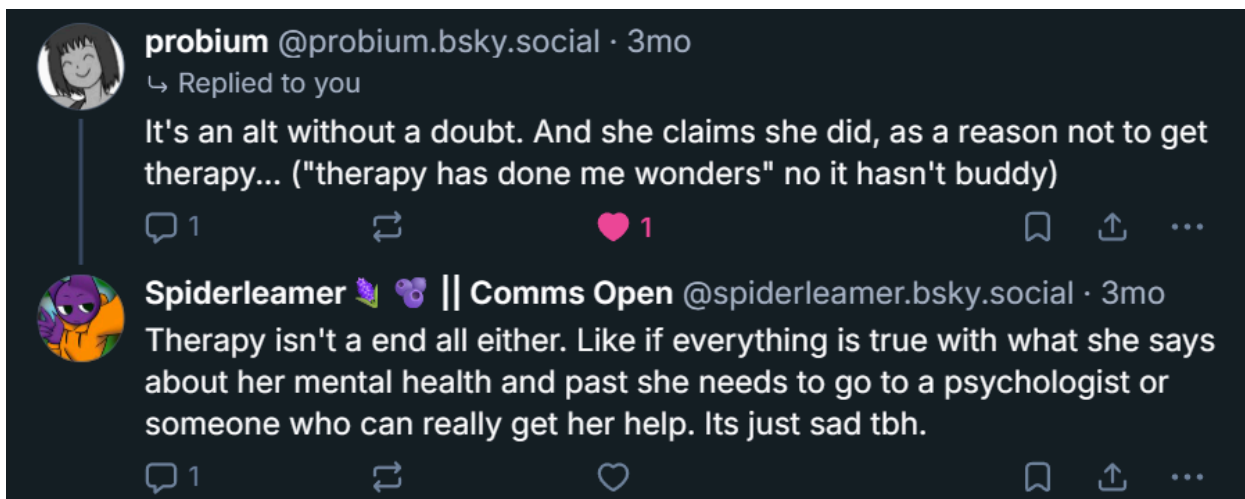

And THIS was where she started trying to call me a pedophile defender for “Siding with Vic”, again I didn’t have a clue who that was originally and also the post I had linked, 1, the person wasn’t defending Vic and 2, two wrongs don’t make a right especially in this situation. Keep in mind I fully still thought this was a random troll and I deadass had nothing else to do that day.

This was when I realized the typing style was incredibly similar to Cyber’s and when I looked further into it + with others catching on people realized IanMoone94 was actually Cyberweasel89 and fully going ham. At that point I immediately changed tactics since I didn’t want to interact with her directly since this really started to show she shouldn’t be online.

This was when I started linking CDC resources again since she wouldn't stop spamming me once I called her out for being Ian Moon and kept calling me a pedophile/pedophile defender and a whole list of other bullshit. I originally didn't block this account since I knew it probably get banned and I genuinely decided hell, maybe she does need help and the best I can do is link mental health resources. Also ya, each time I link the CDC resource that is each a separate reply to posts she made on me. I frankly still thought this somehow had to be a joke or she was trolling since each post was somehow more ridiculous then the next saying people were Nazi's or pedos and a whole other list of weird insult buzzwords.

I just got into an argument about Cyberweasel89 over Vic Mignogna. She claims that she was a victim of Vic Mignogna, but I have failed to find any evidence about Vic diddling her on her socials, and she just went on full-on rant mode. (Honestly, had there been actual evidence I would have been against him, just as I am against Elliot Gindi, who literally had a callout document full of proof!)

She claims that I am an ISWV cultist, but look at KV, believing tons of hearsay. Isn't that simply just a case of the pot calling the kettle black?

She claims that I don't support sex assault victims, but that is entirely wrong. Explain why I don't support Harvey Weinstein or R. Kelly, both of whom were ACTUALLY CONVICTED of sexual misconduct.

Oh, and also, her likes are full of NSFW content. This is also known as the "your likes are public" bombshell as commonly seen on Rev says desu.

Note: One of the links I added was a screenshot of when Cyberweasel was feuding on DeviantArt. From what I know is that this was when the whole Vic situation was going down, I had never heard of this person before but Cyber has claimed to have been assaulted by Vic and when someone on DA asked about it/for proof Cyber from what I know promptly started harassing them. Again I don't know much but from what I had found independently it looked like Cyber was the aggressor instead of simply blocking people. From what I know Probiom, a user she likes to bring up a lot, was there originally for Cyber's DA harassment and I have interacted with them a few times by proxy since this was when I was being harassed by her. To add Probiom has it publicly known they are 19 and has been feuding with Cyberweasel since 2024 where Cyber made google doc on probiom and it seemed like a whole list of feuds were going on all over DA but as far as I've been able to actually find on the website there wasn't any actually major witchhunting and could have been fully resolved by simply blocking people.

The PSA

After being spammed like tweeting was going out of style I ended up deciding to make my own PSA on Cyberweasel89 since I was getting genuinely concerned. During this time she continued to spam Saphera and others eventually making her longest lasting spam account all-roads on Bluesky and making posts on Reddit and so on. Since I was properly witnessing how far she was willing to go on her harassment I decided to warn my own followers. I have VERY few actual followers on my socials and simply made a post explaining the situation and basically saying “Hey just report and block her,”

PLEASE READ DISRIPTION FULLY FOR CONTEXT

Hello there folks! Normally I don't make posts like this on here since I mostly use DA as my portfolio but this has been brewing for 3 months and while I'm not really directly involved I thought I'd still send out a PSA since this has gotten wild, and honestly people need to block and report this person not only for your safety but frankly for everyone's.

Context. Cyberweasel89 is a serial harasser and is a extreme online troll including being exposed for grooming behavior on here. She has actually been known here on DA for long time now but her account recently has been removed and a lot of online accounts nuked. This started when the youtuber Saphera de Noma made a video on the Rev and Kirshe situation three months ago. Cyberweasel then proceeded to serial harass not only Saphera but other creators extensively online and has made multiple alt accounts. I myself am blocked by their current account on BlueSky. Please go watch Saph's vid on this since she has done far more research and is the main one being directly harassed https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FAUZBTgSE_k Silvey Spark has also been one of the creators harassed and added his thoughts as well if you want to watch <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=sSrReE-oWas> Many creators and people have spoken on BlueSky with a long train of harassment. Saphera has plenty of posts including one that fully goes over the timeline of the past 3 full months of harassment. <https://bsky.app/profile/saphera.bsky.social/post/3lx7hvnkuok2t>

Cyberweasel89 currently is on BlueSky as all-roads and again I can't help but emphasize please just report and block! I myself got spammed a total of ~29 times by their previous spam account ianmoone94 after I originally engaged with the thinking they were a troll.

Cyberweasel89 currently is on BlueSky as all-roads and again I can't help but emphasize please just report and block! I myself got spammed a total of ~29 times by their previous spam account ianmoone94 after I originally engaged with the thinking they were a troll.

There are also heavy suspicions that they are on KiwiFarms under the user SocialJusticeWario after borderline Doxing posts popped up about Saphera posted by this user. Please also block them on Reddit, they have been doing whatever posts they can to directly attack and harass mainly Saphera under their main username CyberWeasel89.

Again, PLEASE JUST BLOCK AND REPORT, DO NOT ENGAGE WITH THEM. I can't help but emphasize this. They will serial harass people near nonstop and its a genuine mess. If you do somehow become a target of this harassment and are getting spammed the best suggestion I have is to only reply with the link to CDC mental health resources page. That tends to shake her off and make her realise you're not giving her ammo.

As a final note do not use this as an excuse to threaten attack or be transphobic or any doxing in any way. Cyberweasel is at the end of the day a sad POS who has nothing better to do with her time and just because she sucks does not mean trashing on trans people or the LGBTQ+ community in any way is ok, reminder I myself am queer and very much in the community. Cyber has harassed multiple people and that is the focus of this, do not go to her level because that's exactly what she wants.

If you read through this all thank you and please take care of yourself and stay safe!

I posted this on my DeviantArt since that was my main community, Tumblr and my BlueSky. Of course none of these posts really got a single bit of traction I didn't expect them to and I wanted to make them just in case she did for some reason decide to come spam me again. However she saw the post I made even though I have blocked her on everything and then made an absolutely vile post on me. Originally I tried to laugh it off but the more I read it the more absolutely downright pissed I got. I am still trying to contact Tumblr Support on it (which is notoriously bad) and I've been trying to ignore it best I can.

<https://www.tumblr.com/cyberweasel89/793588821391474688/everyone-this-is-spiderle-arnier-i-cant-find-them?source=share>

Everyone, this is Spiderlearner. I can't find them state their pronouns anywhere so I will try to stick with they/them.

Spiderlearner is possibly Saphera's second-biggest fan who is not an active colluder with her. They are completely obsessed with her, blindly believe everything she says even when one thing contradicts another, spreads her lies and attacks every victim of Saphera and her fans, ignores anything disproving what Saphera says out of fanatical devotion to her narratives, and as you can see here, makes some things up of their own.

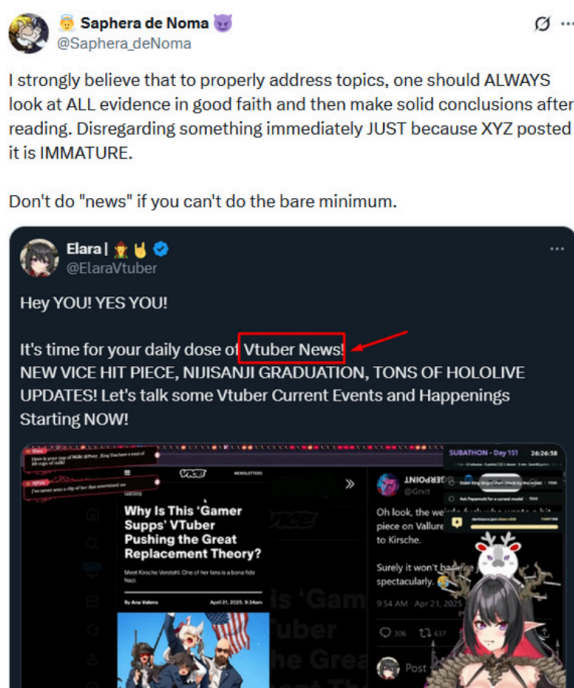

You see, the claim that I am a "serial harasser" stems from DeviantART and Rev Says Desu. On DeviantART, I was abused by several serial cyberbullies and bigots. When I tried to talk about my experiences (since DeviantART refused to do anything), they would play victim and insist I was "harassing" them by telling others about what they did to me. It's because they knew what they did was wrong, they just didn't want consequences for harming others for fun. Their claim that I "harassed" them means that Spiderlearner is claiming that if you are mugged and you report it to the police or tell someone, you are "harassing" your mugger. Spiderlearner is thus a victim-blamer who wants victims to be silenced and abusers and criminals to get away with it scott-free. Many of the people I talked about my experiences with on DeviantART and was accused of "harassing" for simply sharing my experiences included such people as racists, homophobes, sexists, rapists, transphobes, pedophiles, islamophobes, ableists, anti-vaxxers with on DeviantART and was accused of "harassing" for simply sharing my experiences included such people as racists, homophobes, sexists, rapists, transphobes, pedophiles, islamophobes, ableists, anti-vaxxers, and even guys so vile they were pro-black slavery. So think about who Spiderlearner is DEFENDING here in their willful ignorance.

As for Rev Says Desu, I once said I didn't like Harry Potter all that much. This mad the pedophile MAGA grifter Rev Says Desu VERY upset. I didn't think much of it until a couple years later when he made a 3 minute video trying to build a narrative around some questions I asked vtubers. It was very ironic, since Rev harasses vtubers all the time, but it's okay when he does it, and Saphera and her fans agree as shown with Spiderlearner here. Also note that despite their fanatical devotion to Saphera, they are willing to side with her enemy Rev Says Desu and blindly believe that racist transphobe's grift about me simply because it's a convenient narrative for them to justify abusing me with.

As Saphera is a dramatuber and cyberbully (openly identifies as both), and a self-stated "petty bitch," and a grifter (since all dramatubers are to some extent), Spiderlearner is also admitting to being an abusive bully and either a grifter themselves or just gullible enough to buy the lies of any grifter. Or just parasocially in love with their oshi, for all I know.

Spiderlearner is also immature. And that's not my opinion. That's the view of their queen Saphera herself, as shown here with their idol's own words:

Do note that the "harassment" Saphera claims I did was me warning others that she is friendly, accepting, and tolerant towards racists and transphobes.

Something she openly admitted was true, yet still insisted was "slander" because, even though she was proud of it and admitted it was true, she just didn't want people to tell others for some reason. Interesting.

Really, the only reason Spiderlearner is calling me warning others about Saphera allowing bigotry in her community is because even though it's true, it's criticism. And if you use a virtual avatar, you are completely immune to criticism. It's apparently the new rule of reality, and something Spiderlearner buys into with fanatical white knight devotion to their oshi Saphera de Noma.

Ultimately, they are an abuser who wants victims silent so that abusers can get away with it.

Use caution when interacting, as they have very dangerous views on abuse and accountability.

Rexposing this here since she's still on her over ~4 month hate train still. Seriously just report and block Cyberweasel89, genuinely not worth arguing with anymore.

A Lost Orc

And as you can see here, thanks to harassing a BIPOC trans woman CSA victim with Autism, Spiderlearner now has a new fan in the form of Orbosh Grullclaw or metasorc.

Orbosh is an alt-right lolicon MAGA. He is fanatically devoted to known alt-right vtubers Rev Says Desu, Pipkin Pippa, and Kirsche Verstaht, two of which are enemies of Saphera de Noma who have harassed her and her friends Ana Valens and NyaraVT. Naturally, Orbosh has harassed Ana and Nyara as well.

However, despite Ana and Nyara willing to do anything to defend their best friend Saphera, they are oddly okay with Nyara and her fans teaming up with someone who loves their mortal enemies and harasses them.

Despite claiming to be completely opposed to pedophiles as a core part of their morality, Spiderlearner is completely okay with having an alt-right lolicon who put a pedophile into office as one of their fans.

This was my initial response to seeing the post and ironically at the same time I was having to worry about possibly evacuating due to a fire that started in my area. I am California so ya, fire is fun over here.

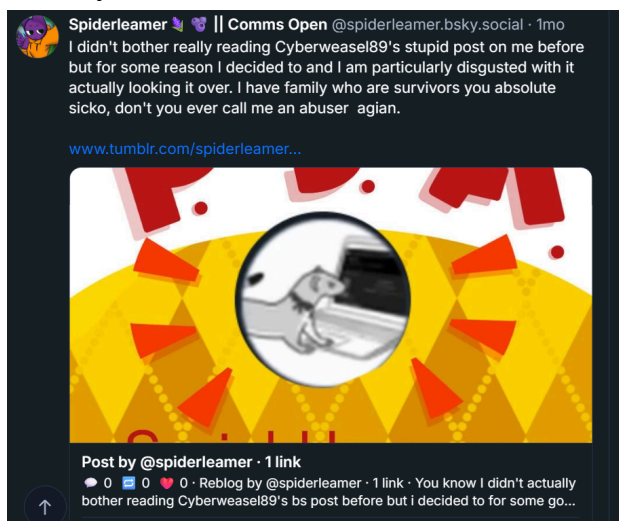

To add to this, because for some reason I love poking the crazy beehive, have now made a Tumblr post on me! She's of course still ranting about Saphera but now I'm apparent a "white knight" and "abuser" and "Saphera's second biggest fan". Hey Cyber, log offline amd get a life. You are only making yourself more miserable by blaming everyone else for your issues that you were only called out for AFTER you started serial harassing Saphera and members of her community. Go get real help, and go get real hobbies. Literally no body cares. You're the one who's making this drag on because for some reason you crave this kind of attention.

It's not a own on anybody and it's just sad. In a lot of your posts you claim your anti-maga yet I see you acting just like them. You harass and use the same victimizing mindset and you are not helping anybody or doing any good for anyone. If you really wanted to help somebody then go out and join in protests and organized rallies and contact your legislators on issues insted of acting like you are never at fault sitting on a couch doing nothing.

I originally hadn't actually read her post on me just rolling my eyes and deciding to make fun of it because really? This is what you spend your time with? Just report my post and block me if you have such an issue with it. Then about a month ago (with still no damn response from tumblr support) I decided again on a day I had nothing better to do to properly read the post she made on me over and I am still fucking seething now reading what she decided to write on me. This was my initial post when I finally read it but now I want to properly go over her bullshit claims and fully address each one. I have tried to keep my habit of cussing out of this document so far but in this section I am throwing decorum out of the window because ya im damn pissed over it and I am not going to act like words don't hurt especially coming from someone whos a genuine online creep and I am only able to keep my temper in check for so long especially against a bully.

Addressing Cyberweasel's Tumblr "Claims"

Second Biggest Fan

"Spiderlearner is possibly Saphera's second-biggest fan who is not an active colluder with her. They are completely obsessed with her, blindly believe everything she says even when one thing contradicts another, spreads her lies and attacks every victim of Saphera and her fans, ignores anything disproving what Saphera says out of fanatical devotion to her narratives, and as you can see here, makes some things up of their own."

Actually I'm fucking not. It is incredibly easy to see my comments on Saphera's posts and not once have I ever "colluded" with her because 1 shes a much larger content creator then me and 2 you are a literal nothing to me. Saying I am "obsessed with fanatical devotion” with her too was definitely a choice of words. The only account I have ever "obsessed" over is Alex Hirsh and the Ocean Exploration Trust on TikTok. Some of us don't live online. Keep in mind Cyber likes to throw around the word “Oshi” a lot and I deadass didn't even know what it meant until she said it. Also everything in my PSA i added links and added full provable context to what Cyber has done. Not once did I ever make a false statement. I deadass dare you to take me to court, both of us know who would win that case and it wouldn't be you.

Serial Harasser Claim

“You see, the claim that I am a "serial harasser" stems from DeviantART and Rev Says Desu. On DeviantART, I was abused by several serial cyberbullies and bigots. When I tried to talk about my experiences (since DeviantART refused to do anything), they would play victim and insist I was "harassing" them by telling others about what they did to me.”

Again mc-fucking-wrong. I called you a serial harasser because you spammed me 30+ times like a chronically online keyboard warrior and has spammed multiple people in the past 4 months (im pretty sure going on 5 months now) calling random people Nazi's, pedos, CSA shamers and a whole slew of deadass nonsense. Literally this would have been over if you had shut up, took the L and just blocked everyone like everyone was blocking you.

Mugging????

“Their claim that I "harassed" them means that Spiderlearner is claiming that if you are mugged and you report it to the police or tell someone, you are "harassing" your mugger. Spiderlearner is thus a victim-blamer who wants victims to be silenced and abusers and criminals to get away with it scott-free.”

Ok genuinely I have no fucking clue how she jumped to this allegory that makes 0 sense. Girly pop YOU WERE AND ARE HARASSING PEOPLE???? If you think you're being harassed, block them, report the post and move on. It is not hard to do in the slightest. I can't help but add this part REALLY fucking pissed me off, I know multiple people who are abuse survivors of multiple kinds and I have always advocated for survivors to speak to police when they can. You on the other hand aren't a damn victim. You willingly engage and harass people online and keep starting shit after everyone has told you to literally just stop it.

DeviantArt Again

"Many of the people I talked about my experiences with on DeviantART and was accused of "harassing" for simply sharing my experiences included such people as racists, homophobes, sexists, rapists, transphobes, pedophiles, islamophobes, ableists, anti-vaxxers, and even guys so vile they were pro-black slavery. So think about who Spiderlearner is DEFENDING here in their willful ignorance."

Again where the hell was I defending any of that? Please I'd LOVE for you to pull up posts of mine where I ever defended a single one of those things. On top of her claims about all of this I have yet to see a single screenshot no matter how hard I have looked on DA and other archives where she was the one getting harassed. Every time I have found something she has been either engaging with obvious trolls or directly harassing someone. On top of that I am an incredibly vocal supporter of the LGBTQ+ being queer myself with close family friends who are trans and gay and I sure as hell am up on my vaccines thank you very much.

Immature Bully

"As Saphera is a dramatuber and cyberbully (openly identifies as both), and a self-stated "petty bitch," and a grifter (since all dramatubers are to some extent), Spiderlearner is also admitting to being an abusive bully and either a grifter themselves or just gullible enough to buy the lies of any grifter. Or just parasocially in love with their oshi, for all I know.

Spiderlearner is also immature. And that's not my opinion. That's the view of their queen Saphera herself, as shown here with their idol's own words:" (screenshot of Saphs post here)

Again what are you on? The time Saphera called herself a petty bitch was when she decided she wasn't going to let your constant harassment and slander slide and decided to start making response posts each time you mentioned her first. That's just fair game and you could have stopped talking about her and blocked everyone months ago. Also I'm the immature one? I am publicly 21 years old, you are ~35 years old acting like this online throwing a fit and beefing with literal children on reddit (I will add details on this later).

I'm an Abuser

"Really, the only reason Spiderlearner is calling me warning others about Saphera allowing bigotry in her community is because even though it's true, it's criticism. And if you use a virtual avatar, you are completely immune to criticism. It's apparently the new rule of reality, and something Spiderlearner buys into with fanatical white knight devotion to their oshi Saphera de Noma.

Ultimately, they are an abuser who wants victims silent so that abusers can get away with it.

Use caution when interacting, as they have very dangerous views on abuse and accountability."

This part also really fucking pissed me off. You do not get to call me an abuser when you are the one who has used hateful and abusive rhetoric and you do not get to play victim when you are not one. I will again always advocate for victims to speak up when they are able to. Unlike you I have been using my time when I can to share about my community on abuse awareness, to share posts about Palestine, Sudan and Congo. I have yet to see you actually do anything to share resources to anybody about real abuse and instead hide behind labels you've given yourself for one reason or another. You like to bring up a lot that you are a CSA survivor, you are not that child anymore and you do not get to repeat your own cycle of abuse to others because you are hurting and don't want to deal with it.

Grullclaw

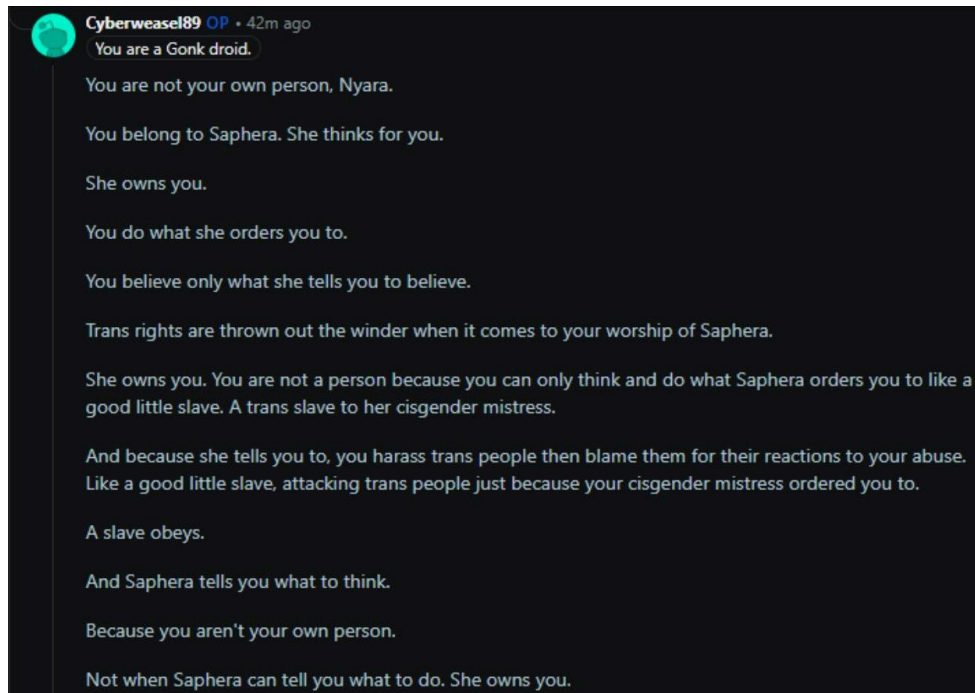

“And as you can see here, thanks to harassing a BIPOC trans woman CSA victim with Autism, Spiderlearner now has a new fan in the form of Orbosh Grullclaw or metalasorc.

Orbosh is an alt-right lolicon MAGA. He is fanatically devoted to known alt-right vtubers Rev Says Desu, Pipkin Pippa, and Kirsche Verstaahl, two of which are enemies of Saphera de Noma who have harassed her and her friends Ana Valens and NyaraVT. Naturally, Orbosh has harassed Ana and Nyara as well.

However, despite Ana and Nyara willing to do anything to defend their best friend Saphera, they are oddly okay with Nyara and her fans teaming up with someone who loves their mortal enemies and harasses them.

Despite claiming to be completely opposed to pedophiles as a core part of their morality, Spiderlearner is completely okay with having an alt-right lolicon who put a pedophile into office as one of their fans.”

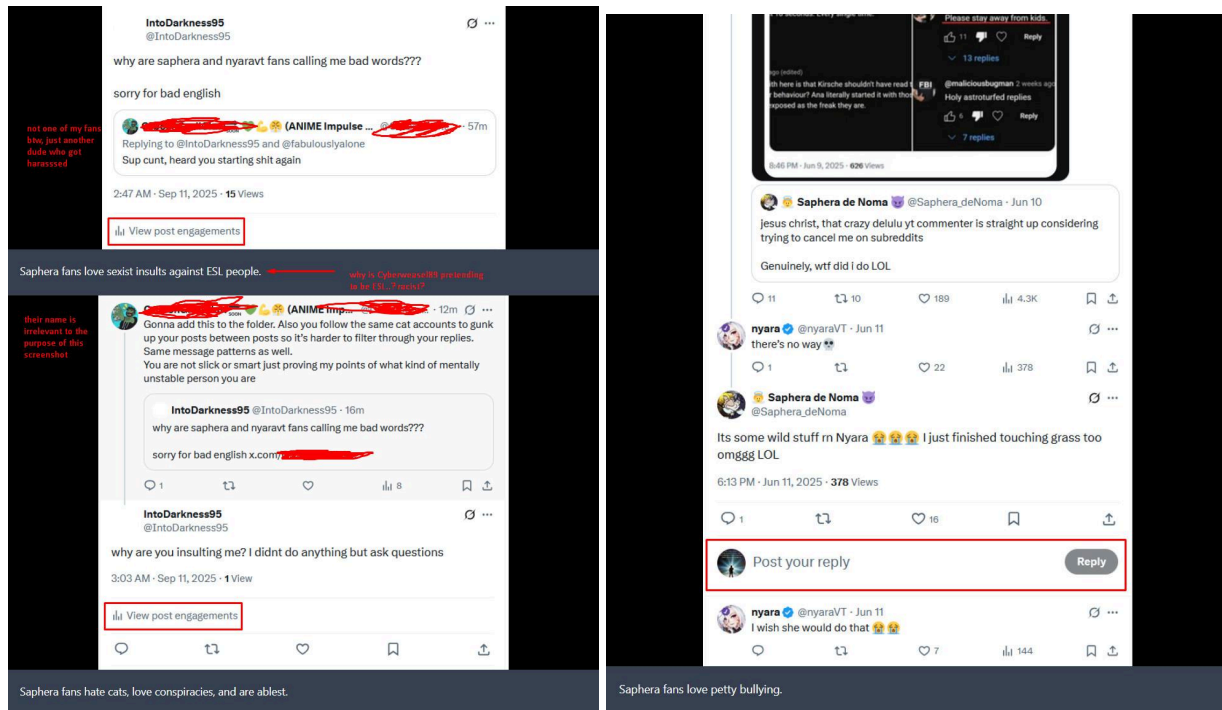

This is where it frankly got stupid. I can't control who likes my posts on Tumblr, do you not know how the internet works despite being on it for literal years??? Also ironic that Cyber mentions this random orc guy harassing Nyara since Cyberweasel has directly called Nyara “Saphera's Slave” and a lot of other weird slander over on Reddit. Also the orc guy doesn't even follow me. I don't get along with MAGA in the slightest but news flash someone can be harassed by you no matter their political beliefs.

And that sums up the absolute fucking bullshit she decided to say on me. After this I made a update on my Tumblr and basically said “fucking leave me alone you weirdo”, Since then I have not had contact with her in the slightest since October 21st WHEN SHE CONTACTED ME A-FUCKING-GIAN.

Another post on me

So this was when she was purely spamming on Bluesky as All-Roads which I had blocked (by the way here is proof of her being All-Roads posted by her + the twitter account that tried to Dox Saphera on twitter) and on Reddit. At this point I had completely checked out, once in a while I make a comment on Saph's posts and that's about it since this really didn't involve me anymore and I am more focused on trying to contact Tumblr support to remove that post. This is also when Cyberweasel somehow got KiwiFarm's attention and then decided to make an account on there to directly interact with KiwiFarm users and use transphobic slurs. I am going to do a separate section of this since again I want to focus on the nonsense I have been dragged into.

This is the link to Saphera's post where she directly shows this is Cyberweasels own Photobank (now edited) but ya, flat out proof she was all-roads and the account intodarkness95 that tried to Dox Saphera on Twitter

<https://bsky.app/profile/saphera.bsky.social/post/3m22nxky3xc25>

Eventually All-Roads got fully marked as rude by BlueSky and eventually Banned. Her BlueSky fetish account was then found under the user VictoryBuster (again painfully clearly her since literally no one else is talking about Saphra or Probium) Then on October 21st she spammed with this account 40+ times multiple people including myself since I had forgotten to block it.

This was the point I decided “fuck it” and make this Doc on her since I have time on my hands and am taking a artblock break. So far that’s the last time she has directly tried to contact or speak about me but I am frankly this close to contacting authorities over her. While I am sure they can’t actually do anything the more I see her post the more clearly unwell she is and I do not know how far she will take this for attention at this point. Everyone has asked her to stop, to leave people alone and just stop talking about Saphera and others for pity points.

At this point though you need a proper call out post again so I decided to waste my time and call out your disgusting harassment and behavior directly.

Cyberweasel89’s Harassment, Slander and Interactions with Minors

This is the part where the harassment towards me ends and her major harassment really begins. Feel free to stop reading here since this is 4+ months of information and this is going to up the page count like no tomorrow due to screenshots.

So Cyber has used 3 main platforms for her harassment and slander on people, 1 is reddit, 2 is KiwiFarms and 3 is Bluesky and I will be adding a section on DeviantArt where her original interaction with minors was called out.

Each of these sections I will be going over her alt accounts, her posts, the harassment she decided to cause along with links from either the direct post/source or a screenshot when I am able and archive links when I am also able to add those. Please keep in mind I am not a professional, this is purely to call her behavior out and I am trying to focus on the mostly provable information as far as I am able to find. This is all publicly available information and most of it blatantly posted by Cyber herself online.

However some of these will be coming from KiwiFarms and I am NOT linking that shit here because 1 its a cesspool and 2 the thread on Cyberweasel is private and I do not want to encourage Doxing despite the fact Cyberweasel has tried to do so herself. I will also be blurring all KF user names again because even if its a shit website and I am using it for information and to get screenshots of her interactions there I want contact with that site minimized as much as possible.

Again to reiterate, I do not condone doxxing or transphobia in any way no matter how much Cyberweasel sucks. If I find you used my document to try and doxx her or anything of the sort I am blocking your ass and fully reporting you and if I have to I will deadass go to police to report you.

DeviantArt

This was where her original posts were found interaction with minors. Keep in full mind all of these people have their birthdays public in their DeviantArt profiles. It takes 2 seconds to check if she had been speaking to a minor.

These are the most damning ones she's made on DA but you say, maybe she's changed. Maybe she stopped. I however say no the fuck she didn't. This is a (gross) fictional story on DeviantArt about a 9 year old being pantsed. This is where CYberweasel89 fully decided to add a comment in 2024.

Since her DeviantArt account is not deleted its a little harder to find things but there are plenty of other comments she left like this on Minors or about Minors.

BlueSky

As I showed up in section “another post on me” which shows she was blatantly All-Roads and IntoDarkness95 these are all posts I am finding she made and from the InternetArchival link of her All-Roads account. And I am including the screenshot of her doxx attempt she made on Saphera on twitter.

This is an archive for her all-roads account but I have added screenshots of her arguably worst posts. She also had/has a habit of posting up to 20+ times within the span of an hour. The archive does end after a while so I will note when I start adding older screenshots that the archive doesn't include.

Just opened threads and saw this comic lmao

I hate this creator! Wait, I have a better idea!

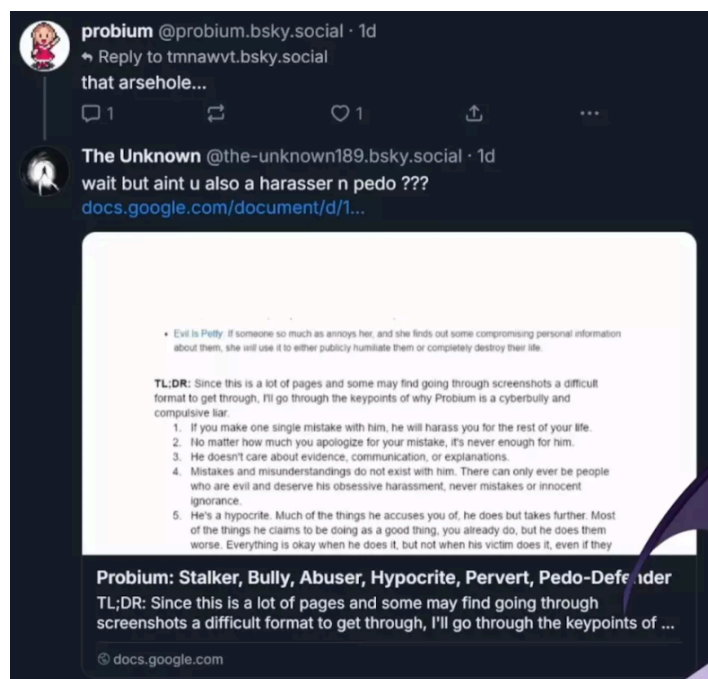

This is where older screenshots pop up, most of these Saphera or others found and I am going to include screenshots from her other alts as well. Some of these unfortunately don't have archival links since her unknown and ianmoone accounts were nuked quite quickly by Bluesky Moderation.

This is where the fetish trigger warning comes in. Cyberweasel has a VERY public fetish for woman with extremely large breasts, its incredibly public and Cyber has fully public porn manga accounts with her Cyberweasel89 user and profile pic that are YEARS old and by extension connected her to the Unknown account, she also used the same username formatting for all-roads and was also literally the ONLY person spamming people on Bluesky. None of these accounts existed at the same time, it was always one at a time. She is also the ONLY person im remotely aware has any beef with Probium again another way it's easy as hell to ID her alts.

Then the Unknown account was nuked and she changed to IanMoone which "coincidentally" matches one of her OC's names and, again, follows her same naming format.

Smol Mustelid
She/Her

It's been a month since you arrived in Orario. You've spent that month living with the diminutive Weretiger Tessa Thompson and her adoptive Werewolf brother Ian Moone. Tessa works as a waitress at a maid cafe and Ian is a courier. Meanwhile, you earn your keep by cooking and doing chores for them while doing what you can to learn about this world and test out your new body.

You've gotten pretty used to parkouring around the rooftops of Daedalus street. You were quite the freerunner back on Earth, but with your new cat-like reflexes and tail, you've never been more agile! You've also done a lot of reading and a lot of bathing.

For now, you've thought it best to find a job. You've thought about Tessa's maid cafe or the Hostess of Fertility, but yeah, one will have maid-loving people perving on you, the other will have drunk Adventurers perving on you.

To be honest, though, the Hostess of Fertility is looking pretty good right about now. The uniform is at least modest and Mia Grand is very open to giving places to belong to people with shady pasts. Even if you're not an Adventurer, you can at least rely on the likes of Mama Mia and Ryuu to protect you. Hell, Mia is Level 6, and except for Syr, all the waitresses are around Level 4! That's enough to easily handle any drunk Adventurer customers who might try to use their Falna to force flirtation on you.

Anyway, as for Tessa and Ian... Tessa is kinda weird. She's a total neat freak and pretty neurotic, but she seems to have warmed up to you pretty fast. Ian has... taken longer. Tessa says he's spent more time out on jobs since you started staying here, but he's actually eaten breakfast and dinner with you a few times in the last week. Tessa says he's starting to see you as a member of his pack like she is.

Dramatuber fans and Saphera De Noma stans truly are all sickos, pederdefenders, violent psychopaths, conspiracy nutjobs, and abusive monsters.

They reaffirmed to me why you should never trust a dramatuber fan.

They're all sickos and monsters looking for excuses to harm. Every single one of them.

It's why I do not understand the fans of Rev Says Desu, Rima Evenstar, Saphera De Noma, FalseEyeD. I saw the horrors of LeafylsHere yet many seem to believe a virtual avatar makes bullying children and LGBT okay. To crusade against a person's existence for a minor perceived slight is not normal.

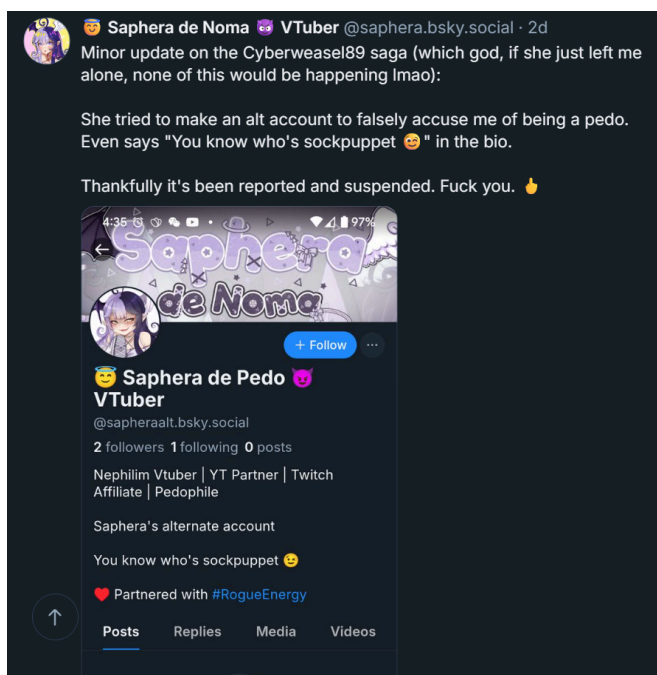

Then when THIS account got banned she changed to All-Roads and continued there. This one lasted the longest until being flagged and rude and eventually banned. Again. This is also the account she accidentally posted proof she fully owned.

Again there are a MULTITUDE of screenshots that I genuinely can't all add here. This is another older archive link with more of her harassment posts to give you a solid idea of how many posts she would make in 1 day.

This one was then banned where she then turned to her VictoryBuster account. Again, a fetish account for larping about a woman with a large chest. I only have my screenshot of this because she made the 40+ posts within one day and the account was immediately suspended in record time.

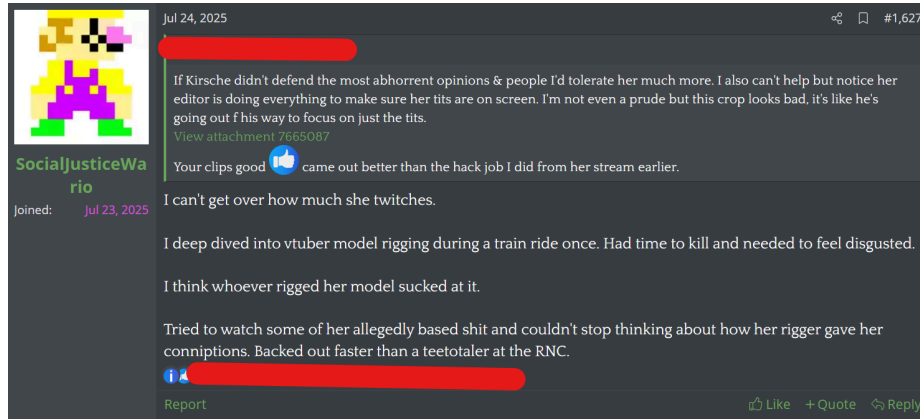

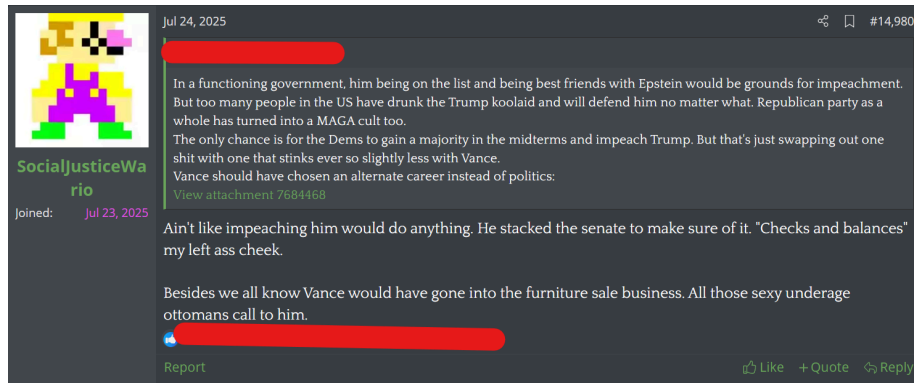

She also at one point tried to make a false Saphera account that was deleted near instantly.

KiwiFarms and SocialJusticeWario

This is the section that will be the most censored and edited due to the nature of it and the website it is unfortunately involving. I want to again reiterate I do not condone doxing, slurs or any of the witchhunting comments that will pop up here. This section is to fully show how Cyber decided to go onto this forum herself, was found out on there and tried to directly get Saphera under the scrutiny of KiwiFarms. I will only be adding screenshots here, people are able to verify this themselves on KiwiFarms and looking up the username SocialJusticeWario without logging in. Again I do not condone doxxing. If you at all find Cyberweasel89's irl info keep it to yourself or I will report you to the cops myself.

To add the way she was found out there is 1, the SJW profile and All-Roads profile has the same layout, 2 she was again the only person on that whole site to ever mention Saphera and 3 she decided to insert herself into her own thread and has the same typing style. I'm going to do these in chronological order best I can, this section is going to be LONG. I won't really add any of my own commentary here, this is what Cyberweasel decided to do and I am going to share it after she loved to call me and others every kind of phobic possible. To add as well she again was the one to focus on YourTrulyAG, Grullclaw, Rev, Saphera, SilvySparks and Nyara. She also was the one to bring up her OWN spam accounts.

"here is nijigas friend shino confirming himself sending and posting child rape when confronted by someone who outed him for it. he also points out later that it was not just being shown but used to attract more people. all while trying to deflect what he actually did."

Holy shit it's NeegusMan. That's a blast from the past. Shit was surreal because I watched that loli hunter get outed as a pedo nuked into nothingness and unmade by the FBI in real time.

Pedo confessed to possession of CP. Entire lolicon and loli hunter Twitter blew up over it and reported him to the FBI en masse. He posted a video of himself walking down a dirt road smoking a blunt and mocking his haters then all his accounts including all his numerous alts got banned or deleted all at once. I did as much digging as I could at the time and best I could find the FBI officially got him.

Shortsighted retard I am tho I didn't archive this shit. It all happened so fast it was over within a day. God its surreal seeing NeegusMan come up again like this. I still think about the guy from time to time because he was such a big case of a loli hunter who outed himself as a real pedo.

guy sounds based as fuck. Does he have an account here?

Oh holy fucking Gerber baby not this beaner.

Bro you just committed peak cringe.

YoursTrulyAG is notorious in my circles. The AG stands for Alex Gomez so I'm just gonna call him Alejandro since he's a fucking beaner who voted for our resident lolcow Donald J. Trump cause he wants to be deported for being brown.

He's one of those do nothing fags who ain't good at anything cause he peaked back in 2012 with the release of Gangnam Style. Now he's stuck in that faux-edgy teenager phase as a grown ass adult. You know the kind who think faking cancer makes you cool with the kids.

He's exactly what you expect from that description. Tryhard who makes "edgy jokes" but can't take what he dishes out. Faggot accuses the most based guys of being pedos and makes the most retarded excuses for why

He's exactly what you expect from that description. Tryhard who makes "edgy jokes" but can't take what he dishes out. Faggot accuses the most based guys of being pedos and makes the most retarded excuses for why they're pedos like "Oh this guy doesn't like swearing so he gotta be a pedo" and retarded shit like that. But he's a fucking beaner cause he and his buddies love CP. Seriously considering mentioning this guy on the anti-loli crusader thread since he's exactly the kinda pedo who accuses everyone of being pedos but is way more of a pedo himself. Like this fucking degenerate creep defended a real-life convicted pedophile right to the face of the chick he pedo-raped who put him behind bars (based) and then said that actual CHILDREN who get raped are thots and sluts. He's more pedo than anyone he's ever accused of it and his gooner art collection is as full of naked cartoon teenagers acting all cutesy about it like you expect. Fucking sickening.

Here's the kicker though. He'd be perfect for a lolcow because he never learned not to feed the trolls and he escalates any situation. He gets triggered and has hissy fits that last years because mentioning "politics" where he can see it hurts his fee-fees. Two bros just having a chat and suddenly this pedofag comes in to act triggered and demand revoking their free speech because he's hyper offended they mentioned physical fitness because that's gasp POLITICS!

Some troll who mentioned having an account here decided to fuck with him and the result was glorious. I wish I'd brought popcorn. When the troll called him Alejandro Gomez you know what this beaner did? The smart fag would've just played dumb and said that ain't their name right? Nope, this beaner outed himself and confirmed the troll somehow knew his name! Then he kept feeding the troll with these schizo claims until the troll baited him into this:

My biggest issue with the anti-woke mob is just how annoying it's getting. You look at Low Testosterone's videos and it's like every video he makes he's spamming that one buzzword to the point it's lost all meaning.

It doesn't accomplish anything. They're not stopping anything by drawing attention to it when they don't have any meaningful words for why it's bad, why it needs to stop, or how they should stop it. It's no different from a Tumblrina "awareness campaign." They just come across like whiny snowflakes who get triggered whenever something they don't like is in media they never intended to consume and wasn't made for them in the first place.

Pretty sure most of us grew out of that kinda ineffectual hater phase back in secondary school.

The anti woke shit got annoying, because it became main stream. It used to be a counter culture fighting against ridiculous shit like race swapping characters or making a already established character queer, but now it's complaining that there's a deaf black woman in a game centered in modern day New York City. It's not about fighting against woke beliefs being pushed on people anymore. It's about pushing anti woke beliefs on people who really don't care and just want to play video games or watch tv or movies.

Too real man. I just wanna play a game. I don't care about what politics some retard I don't know tells me are in it and why I should be against it and I don't care if there even are politics in it in the first place. Some of the best tales were about political intrigue, wars, and international espionage. I don't play Spec Ops: The Line and then get triggered by the anti-war messages. I play it because it's a game and the politics are just fiction, they can't hurt you ya fucking snowflake. The anti-woke mob are basically just book burners at this point. We've gone full circle from those W. Bushers who burned Dixie Chicks albums and god I feel old for being alive when that happened.

I admit I was kinda neutral on the anti-woke shit at first. Just shrugged it off as the younger generation feeling like rebels without a cause. But then I saw the same anti-woke types who rallied against raceswapping jumping to white knight Joanne Rowling when she's been retroactively diversifying her cast for woke points since before it was trendy. Even Low Testosterone himself is guilty of simping for Joanne even though she fits his mob's definition of woke. It was that hypocrisy that clued me in to what the anti-woke mob was really about. hilariously, no anti-woke can give me an answer when I bring up this glaring hole in their anti-woke principles.

EDIT: Minor typo correction.

what really grinds my gears about Keffals is how she uses her transgenderism to shield herself from criticism and things she doesn't like. if you criticize her, you're transphobic. if you disagree with her, you're transphobic. if you're a member of Kiwi Farms, you're transphobic.

Okay but bro.

I wanna at least take responsibility for that last one.

We're Kiwi Farms. We pretty much single handedly popularized the term troon. We should be proud of that, not deny it.

Anyone validating trannies is cowardly scum.

Obviously.

But I ain't gonna make them my sole personality trait.

Nor am I gonna become so terminally obsessed with trans DICK that I end up harassing a minor.

Graham is a delusional danger to children. He became so obsessed with girlcock that he ruined his entire career and lost his family since he cared more about symbolically sucking penis than kissing his wife.

Any freak who hates troons so much he becomes a child abuser deserves what troons deserve if you ask me.

Troons are hateable but anyone who loses themselves to their borderline fetish for them is just another lolcow worthy of derision and pity.

The fact he tries to "invade women's spaces" in drag. The fact he declares himself god's gift to women as their white knight. The fact they have to do what he says for their own good. It just makes it all the more cringe.

I wear the pants in my marriage but the reason it's lasted two decades is because I don't treat my wife like Glinner treats women. Fakes like him who use fake altruism for their own self-indulgence is what I hate the most. If he were just honest about hating troons I could at least like him a bit but no he has to hide it behind his fake feminist shit. From this bitter old man, I say: Fuck that Internet addicted freak.

The sad thing is had he just taken the criticism of his trans episodes he wrote on the chin and shrugged them

Shouldn't be too far back but he made a video going after an artist who took someone else's work & made a skin swap of them, which is typical of the anti woke crowd, but in this instance the 2 artists knew each other & the one he made this whole video defending called him out for sending his audience to go harass them over a dumb skin swap. He took the video down & made an apology on his second channel.

Bro it's even better than that.

Some Twitter user tried to tell Rev he got the story wrong.

Now Rev is pretty famous for what a coward he is. You ever have those bullies in middle school who are full of bravado when they got their friends with them but then get all quiet when you find them alone? That's Rev. He won't ever respond to PMs because he don't got his fanboys to back him up. Several of his targets have said they tried to message him to work out what they thought was a misunderstanding only to receive radio silence from Low Testosterone. Despite this, he whined to the dev of Kingdom Come that he shouldn't have made a public issue out of Rev's clickbait video title and should have PMed him to talk about it in private. Because of course Rev would do that.

Anyway this marks the only time I know of that Rev actually responded to someone's PM. The Twitter user posted a screenshot of his response to getting the story wrong being a single smirking emoji. I only wish I had saved it but I think Twitter nuked it at some point.

And he put it on his second channel because he knew it would be less likely to be seen by his fans there but he could reference it to prove what a GREAT GUY he is.

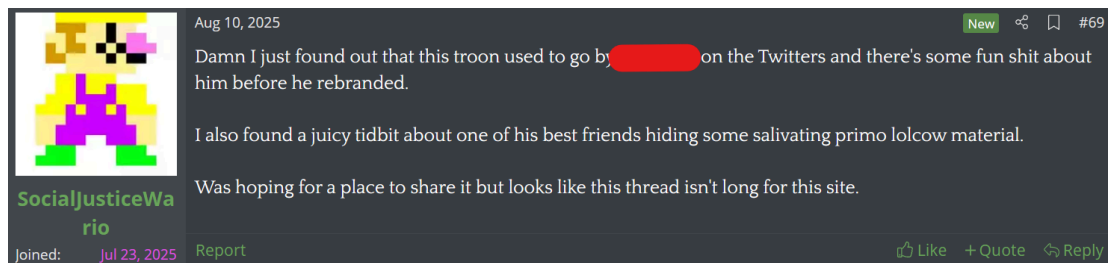

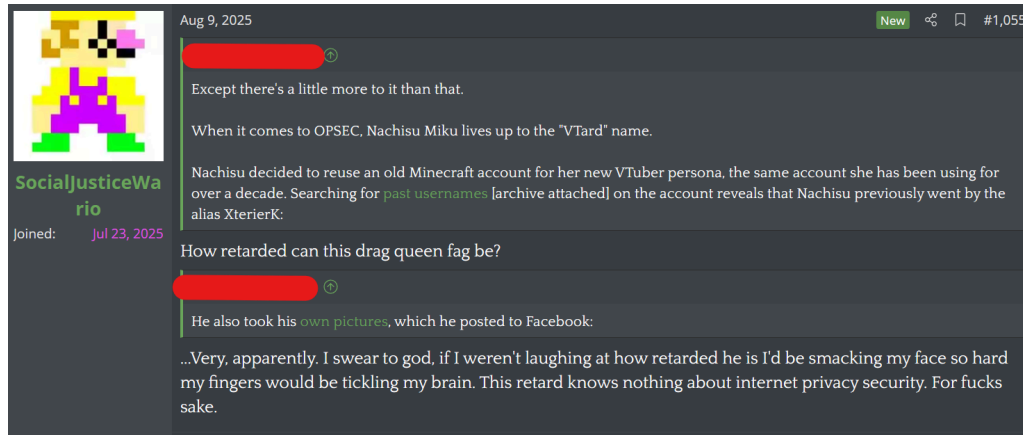

On a related note I love how Rev's pedo fanboys can never get a good counter to this one. Hell I seen one or

So apologies if I fucked this archiving shit up since I'm new to this.

First of all is that this pedofag used to go by [REDACTED] ver on the Twitters. He rebranded when he got dogpiled for some racist shit. Like he didn't even pull the edgy joke card. The retard meant every word he said and went out of his way to find minorities to harass with his racism. He couldn't handle the backlash and whined about everyone being so mean to him and even lied about having PTSD to play the mental health victim card defense. This troon went after natives, Asians, and Jews like he was desperate to be gangbanged in revenge by 'em and for once I'm actually cheering for the minorities so what does that say about Yannik?

He purged it but you can still see replies about him by searching the Sayosune name. You can see from what few screenshots were made that it's literally the same character image he would later use for his Vtuber model. Guy is not slick.

Saphera De Noma has been described as "the leftwing Rev Says Desu." Considering that pedo is one of our lolcows you can imagine what this one is hiding in her closet. Though I guess we have a pretty good idea given this enticing self admission which originally brought this pedo from attention to interest for me:

 Saphera de Noma VTuber

For a variety of reasons, I will not be using my non-Vtuber Reddit account because it links to stuff that could, theoretically, doxx me. So only the new Reddit ones will have to do. Which is Like this pedo might as well have told us there was gold hidden in her own backyard for all the admission this is! I'm salivating at what juicy shit this pedo dramatuber and Low Testosterone wannabe could be hiding but I ain't got the doxxing skills to find shit yet. Hopefully one of the boys with the right skillsets here can do it if they feel as enticed as me.

Oh yeah the reason she was making a sockpuppet on Reddit? She was brigading a Subreddit to get some mild criticism about her taken down. You can't make this shit up. It's classic lolcow behavior. Imagine if she tried that shit with us? It'd send me, brothers!

I'll be digging more into this Saphera pedo because I just know this is an untapped gold mine for lolcow material. What makes it all the tastier is she's always playing the high school rich bitch persona but the slightest criticism and she's like a self entitled child who demands people do what she says OR ELSE. Who wants to make bets on whether she's a troon using a voice changer LARPing as his teenage girl fursona?

I got curious from what a fragile ego narcissist it acts like constantly. That curiosity turned into attention Leo Decaprio style when I saw it admit it had a secret Reddit account that had tons of doxable ammo on it. You can imagine why a kiwibro would salivate at that kinda admission so sorry if I got a bit overexcited about it. Smellin blood in the water ya know?

Please do share any and all first hand experiences you may have with Cyberweasel. If something in the thread is wrong than freely do state what so I can go and edit it out. That is the purpose of the Prospering grounds. To refine threads before they are put out

Ah shit. Issue is that I don't think I ever did have any first hand experiences with this troon. I mean I do have a vague memory of something firsthand but not in the kinda firsthand you're thinking. If I share it I dunno if you guys are gonna believe me specially since I may be getting the ol' memory wrong.

vague memory of something firsthand but not in the kinda firsthand you're thinking. If I share it I dunno if you guys are gonna believe me specially since I may be getting the ol' memory wrong.

That said I did use some of these websites around the time this troon did. Makes me fucking sigh in relief I never ran into him. Issue there is I don't got any real proof of the things I say you got wrong about and even then like I said memory kinda goes at my age so I may be misremembering em. And I also understand why you wouldn't know about this shit since you only really see these websites as they are now rather than knowing how they were different back then and you'd be shocked how UI updates can completely change the context of at least one of your pics. If I do share em take em with a pile of salt and you can either accept them or deny them and I won't blame ya for either brother.

[REDACTED]

Oh shit you're right. Thanks for bringing this up to my attention!

35 years 10 months 26 days

No problem brother. Sorry for the insult about flunkin math class. Meant it as a lighthearted jab but hard to convey that through text. Plus not everyone thinks in date math. I guess it's just easier for me to spot this shit since I'm an office worker. Paperwork is hell.

[REDACTED]

SJW has made some pretty weird PA request like posts incidentally on the same people that [REDACTED] holds a grudge against (Saphera, nyara, yourstrulyag, rev)

A | A | A | A

Like if you wanna dox some retard then do it yourself. I found [REDACTED] dox because voter records is [REDACTED] are all public. We ain't yo personal army niggah

That said brother I do feel I gotta apologize for givin ya the wrong impression here. If I gave ya the idea that I

public. we ain't yo personal army niggah

That said brother I do feel I gotta apologize for givin ya the wrong impression here. If I gave ya the idea that I was seekin PA shit or for others to do my doxing for me than that's my bad for not getting my intent across properly.

That first link is totally valid. I'd joined only two days prior and though I'd been a lurker for almost 10 years I was still figuring out my presentation style and since I recognized that name from my own circles I mighta gotten too overzealous about it. I realized that which is why I accepted the responses I got with grace.

Second was me trying to contribute to the thread. Like I explained above that Saphera creature is a potential gold mine and weirdly connected to several of our lolcows. I wasn't trying to gather a PA I just wanted to share a contribution to Yannik's thread since Saphera is like his best friend or something. And I wasn't asking others to dox it for me. I was hoping someone could direct me to how I could do it myself or give me tips on how I could use its email to do it. Though if asking for advice on how to do it myself is the same thing as demanding others do it for me than shit I got nothin other than to take my L.

Third same thing. Wasnt tryna ask for PA and if it looked like that then that's on me brother. And frankly I'm too much of a newfag to feel comfortable making my own threads yet. Don't wanna get too big for my purple overalls.

Fourth was me contributing a golden find that I was excited to share. Again if it sounded like I was PAing then shit man I gotta express my regret for not makin myself clear enough again.

[REDACTED]

While I personally think that @SocialJusticeWario is not a sock o [REDACTED] I also can't help but agree that the similarities between the two are almost uncanny.

Oh boy! The same exact banner as on All Roads! Tard probably just used the same file without a second thought. Sadly you can't see any more than that because the pissbaby privated his account. What, afraid of something? Did you shit your pants when you found out OP made a thread on our favorite lolcow [REDACTED]?

Additionally, what else do I think is suspect? Well, how SJW types about certain people. Let's look at "Rev Says Desu." I've never seen anyone autistic enough to type out the whole damn thing often. Most just call him "Rev" because no shit, it's shorter.

From the doc, you can see how much [REDACTED] types "Rev Says Desu" with all caps in just 1 page.

TW: Mentions of rape, mentions of child abuse, bullying, manipulation tactics, transphobia (including misgendering), threats, ableism, mention of Nazis

Saphera de Norma is a dramatist who I discovered after she did a video on Rev Says Desu. As I am an Autistic, disabled, asexual trans woman & CSA survivor who received hundreds of death threats and slurs after Rev did a video making up some excuse to harass me, I considered anyone against Rev to be good people worthy of my support.

Unfortunately, I found one who was just as bad as Rev, including using nearly all his tactics and behaviors.

A perpetual persecution complex, double-standards, not practicing what she preaches, rules for thee but not for me, DARVO manipulation tactics, "I know you are but what am I?" narcissism, cowardly harassment tactics, obvious lies, blind assumptions, ableism, transphobia, various stereotypes, misrepresenting facts, an hominem to avoid engaging with actual points or grievances of the target, abuser isolation tactics of forcing doubt on the target's mental state, petty insults, a desire to see someone suffer for a minor perceived slight, the per se, victim blaming, it was like if Asmongold, Rev Says Desu, LeafyShere, Tactone, Kirsche, and their fanbases merged into one with all their various tactics, were made not wing (but very hypocritical about said white wrens, of course), and then kicked onto LGBTQ and disabled people.

This all began when I tried to ask for Saphera's help with some Nazis and transphobes that were harassing me in the comments, with the autism filter affecting my ability to properly push back against them. It was very difficult to get ahead of Saphera, and while I got frustrated as my mental health was degraded by the toxins in Saphera's comment section, I did what my Autistic mind's difficulty with predicting social conventions could do to be as considerate as possible, even requesting a more private talk with Saphera's mod to avoid interrupting her cozy Twitch stream.

Saphera however had no desire to help me, though she led me on believing she would, only to wait on a false hope which would never come. When I attempted to reach out to people about this, Saphera did not like the way I did it, and immediately responded with nuclear fire, intent on using her own new subscriber and new fan as a sacrifice upon the altar of content in the same way Rev Says Desu had done three years prior.

Now look at how SJW types out "Rev Says Desu:"

Ugh.

I can explain some of this.

Did some digging in my basement.

Was right about firsthand knowledge of this troon.

We went to the same high school. Might be why we sound similar at times.

For everything else I need a drink. Too sober to deal with all this.

Knowing I went to the same high school with a troon is making me sick. Fuck.

Nigga, what? So you two obsess over the exact same niche Internet drama people and share the same banner as him because you... went to the same high school? How does that make any sense???

Right. Now I'm just even more suspicious!

@SocialJusticeWario, be honest with us. You were in a gay relationship with [REDACTED] And he dumped you because you said something edgy/right wing. Is that what happened?

None of @SocialJusticeWario's IPs correspond to those places.

Thanks! So either I misjudged Cyberweasels OPSEC or this is truly a monkey typewriter cosmic level coincidence. That these two are so similar sounding, that is.

hat's right, the usual suspects of literalwho's that SJW seems fixated on.

Just cause two people know a handful of the same things that don't mean they the same people. Be real brother.

Fact you boys call Saphera literalwho and then use it as a trusted source for me and a troon being the same guy? Alex Gomez was just a guy I had personal history with from a discord server. I only knew about Saph because of our lolcow Ana Valens. When his shit shit broke I saw some repeat customers in his replies and that's how I discovered his little group. When the Kirsch shit dropped Saph did a video on her and our resident pedo lolcow rev. Simon Robineau also did videos on rev. Pretty mundane.

That Saph thing thinking everyone is this [REDACTED] prick should be a dead giveaway it was grifting to sow infighting. We're better than that boys. We shouldn't buy into accusations from friends of our lolcows. That's beneath us.

Besides what if Saph was sowing this discord as a distraction to prevent us from seeing her as the piggy bank of lolcow gold she is? Grifters are manipulators that incite emotions to obfuscate their real intentions.

Nigga, what? So you two obsess over the exact same niche Internet drama people and share the same banner as him because you... went to the same high school? How does that make any sense???

If you treat obscure lolcow knowledge as obsession or fixation then it'll be harder to get good lolcow material. Chase off the early prospectors and you'll be waiting all the longer for the gold rush.

Besides I got the banner from Facebook. Think I'm like four high school alumni away from being Facebook friends with that troon. Ugh.

Right. Now I'm just even more suspicious!

Thanks bro. Needed that laugh. Was shuddering with how many degrees of Kevin Bacon I was from being Facebook friends with a troon.

Thanks! So either I misjudged Cyberweasels OPSEC or this is truly a monkey typewriter cosmic level coincidence. That these two are so similar sounding, that is.

Well by went to the same high school I mean we had the same writing and typing curriculum. I'm mostly an internet lurker and the only other place I talk aside here is Facebook and usually only with pricks I knew in high school. Being around Facebookers from the same curriculum influenced how I type too. Autocorrect is the cause for the rev says desu capital thing and maybe a few other things but sometimes I just use proper noun capitals on reflex cause of all the business reports I write up.

I'm also drunk half the time I'm on this site. Not the best idea I admit but you dont get to be my age without knowing fortune favors the bold.

Besides major flaw in Saph's accusation is I wouldn't be caught dead defending a troon. It's called having fucking standards mate.

I'm not going to add screenshots here since it would add an ungodly amount of screenshots but this was when the KiwiFarm thread really started digging into SJW and Cyber and started finding more and more connections between the too also her "we went to the same highschool" lie really didn't work.

And this was where Cyber went off and doing what she always does and started accusing people of being "Sapheras simps and sockpuppets".

The post has been edited in full now. I think we caught ourselves a good lolcow. Nice thread

Wait a minute. You joined this site only two days after this thread was made. I'm seeing you repeating a lot of the same shit Saphera and its simps say and only they say. You keep saying everything is a conspiracy like some schizo.

Maybe I'm catching the conspiracy bug but I'm starting to think you only joined this site to plant shit for Saphera to use against this troon.

If so... Brother why didn't you say so?

I've been watching this shit on the twitters. Funniest shit ever seeing the vtard troons turn on each other. If the farms wants to cause infighting for the troons and vtards then I'm more than happy to take one for the team.

I ain't feelin too hot about the fact you're simping for that schizo grifter when it's best besties with two of our lolcows and a Twitter retard name [REDACTED]. All the more reason I think you might be one of her simps sent in to white knight your parasocial vtard waifu.

The fact you're doing the same "this thing and this thing are totally all connected" and "your defense don't make any sense so I'm gonna reach to maintain my theory" and "I just made up this conspiracy and it's totally real" shit your vtard queen does is a dead give away. Fact you're accusing me of being a secret agent for a troon makes a lot more sense if you're one yourself trying to make the accusation to prevent yourself from getting it. I mean fuck she's screencapped your posts and put em on the twitters so could you be any more getting it. I mean fuck she's screencapped your posts and put em on the twitters so could you be any more obvious? Try harder bro. You talk too much like Saphera.

But I'll play along. Cause its funnier this way.

Nigga, what? So you two obsess over the exact same niche Internet drama people and share the same banner as him because you... went to the same high school? How does that make any sense???

Yeah, sure bro. I'm Cyberweasel89. Go tell your friends.

Even a chimp can run a VPN. I wouldn't put it past the fag to learn a thing or two while making alts in the twenty some years this guy has been slapfighting with randoms on the internet. Bet he learned it to avoid IP bans lmao
Also you mentioned earlier about how the images are an exact match except one is webp and the other is png. Any images we upload here are automatically turned into webp. Tard shit in my opinion but it does the job. I find it hilarious that its an exact file match even down to the name because that can't be a coincidence.

Yup. I've been watching Twitter and Saphera ever since it started pushing this conspiracy hard. It's been saying the same retarded VPN shit and calling the staff liars just like you.

Sure schizo bro. I could tell you where I got the images. But it's funnier if you go attack this troon with this conspiracy.

This thread is currently in Prospering Grounds, a forum locked to members-only (the dox is behind the "private" members-only tag too). This means that he has to have an account on here to view it. Once again linking him to @SocialJusticeWario .Although it is possible that one of his trooncords buddies has an account on here and just forwarded the info to him.

Yeah sure bro. I'm spying for him, totally. Go tell your troon queen. I'm sure it'll cum over this news.

Archive

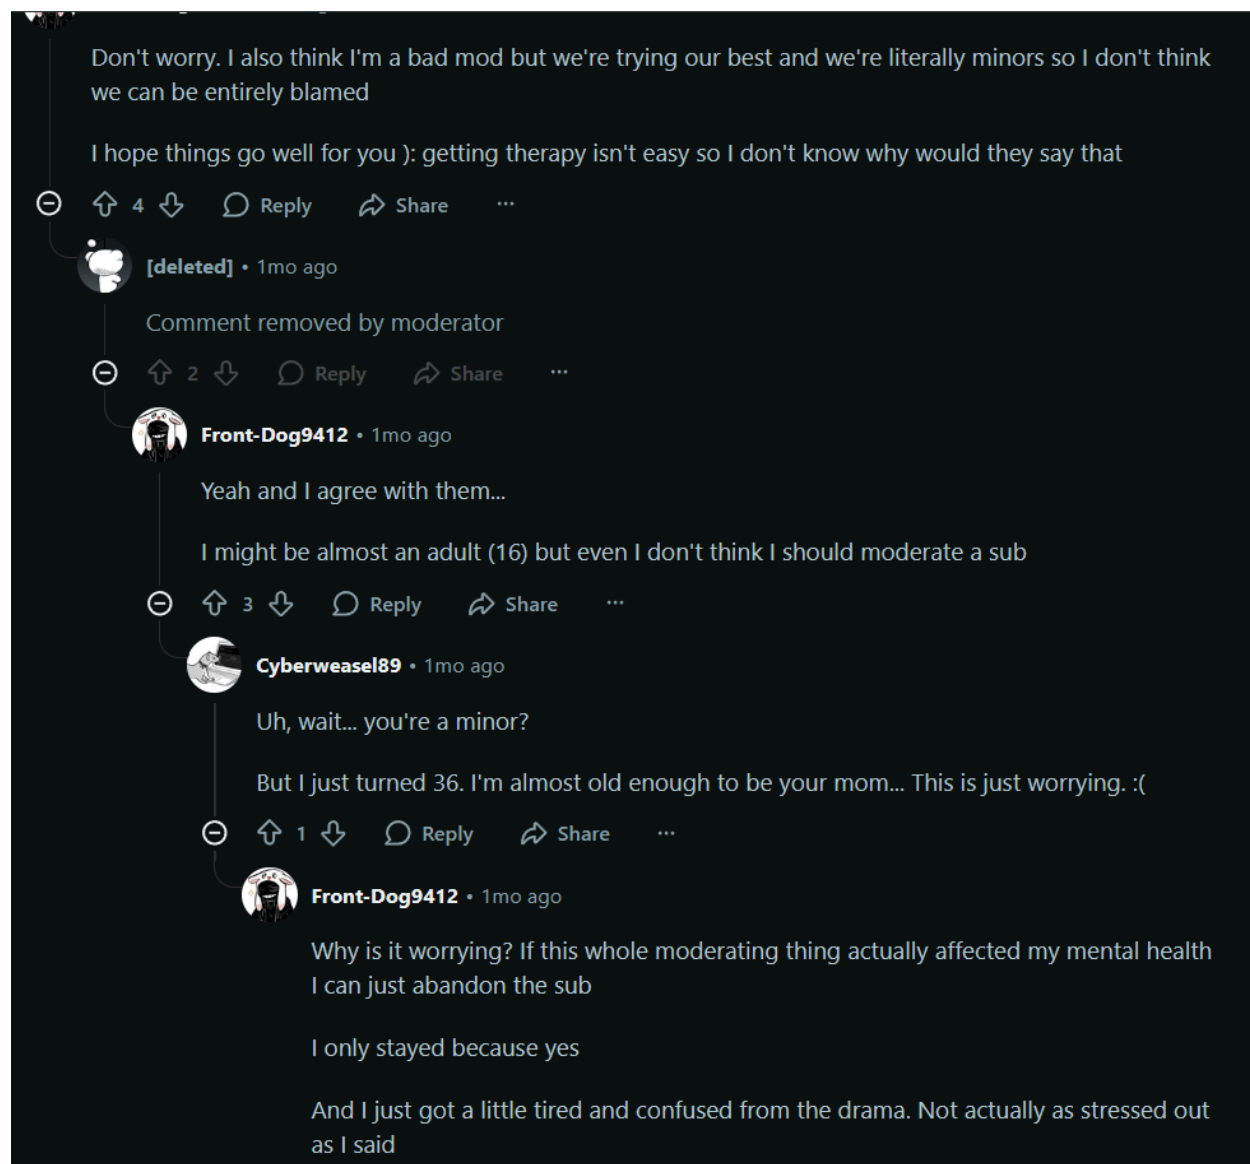

Page not found and archive ain't loading. Damn was looking forward to seeing that.

She then avoided any mentions of herself on KF and then her account from what I know got completely shut down on there and she hasn't been on since. I want to add while I, again, absolutely hate KiwiFarms I am going to unfortunately give them credit, they've not made any of this information public without an account on the thread they made and so far as far as I can tell it's never been taken off platform.

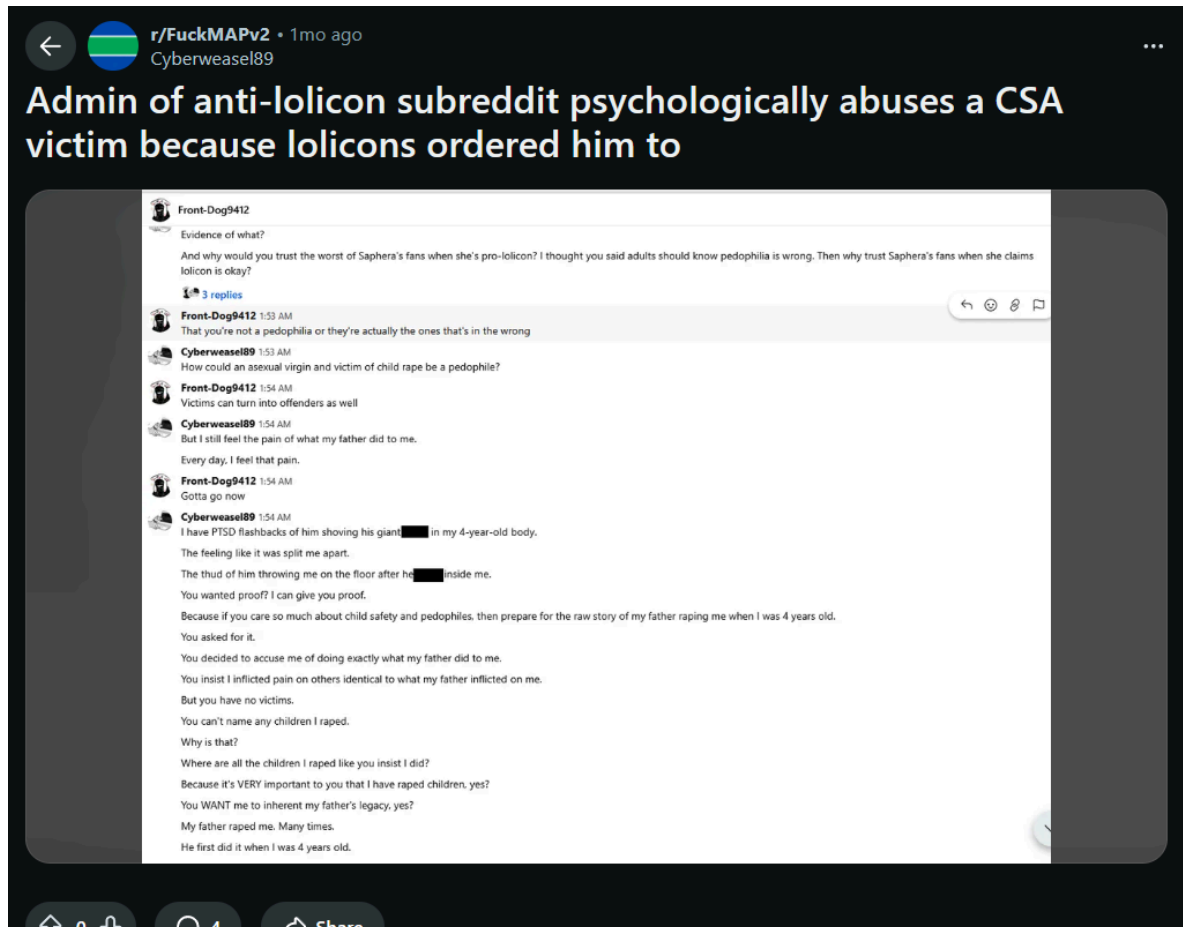

Reddit and Interactions with a Minor

This is where I have found most of her spamming and slander posts have gone especially now since being blocked on nearly every subreddit shes gone on. I am going to only focus on a few things though, Saphera has defended her self and publicly pointed out Cyberweasel's lying on her Bluesky account including posts being spammed multiple times in a day. I however want to focus on a few select posts. Extreme trigger warning for this for extreme CSA typed out.

She had been spamming on reddit multiple posts on Saphera and the supposed people hunting her from DeviantArt although I have yet to find any recent info on this that I can actually verify with archive links or anything. In the process of this she posted on Anti-Pedo/Loli subreddits as well trying to paint Saphera and others as pedo followers and CSA victim blamers. Then when one of the mods who is publicly 16 and told Cyberweasel found out after the fact Cybers history on DA, harassment and the past months they banned Cyberweasel and the Cyberweasel proceeded to bash said minor user and spam them extreme detailed messages of her rape as a child. She spammed a sixteen year old rape discriptions.

I am not going to link a screenshot here since it is incredibly graphic but here is a link to there post where the DM's Cyber made are fully shown uncensored and here is an archive.

I have personally reported Cyberweasel89 to Reddit fully when I saw this and for her constant spam and harassment posts. I know they can be slow but in the meantime this has to be properly exposed. Cyberweasel89 is a grown woman harassing people and DM minors things like this. It is disappointing and on top of it down right disgusting. I want to add my main message and make this damn clear, Cyberweasel, Get offline and get real mental health help. You need it.

On top of this as someone who is queer with close family friends who are trans it really upsets and downright angers me she is using queer spaces to try and gain sympathy. Why? I don't know at this point. All anyone has ever asked her to do is to stop.

She has spammed r/asexual, r/saltyerthenkrayt, r/fucklolis r/fuckmaps r/fuckmapsv2 r/vtuberdrama, r/yotubedrama and many others although a lot of these subreddits have either deleted her posts or flat out banned her. She is now using r/anarchytrans for her posts that I am going to say are flat out untrue at this point. She has been the main instigator for all of this time and time again and has a long history interacting directly with trolls and not just blocking people. These aren't false accusations, this isn't a witch hunt, this is people calling her out on her gross behavior and urging her to either get offline and get new accounts or go get some real mental health help for whatever could be going on in her life to be acting like this especially towards children. As far as I am able to find no one has ever hunted her down or directly threatened her personally or IRL. Even from what I have been able to tell KiwiFarm has fully dropped her thread and it's never actually gone off platform.

If anyone has any questions please feel free to ask. I wanted to be as transparent as I could in this as well as giving what information I can and censoring things that seemed highly irrelevant. Thank you for reading if you did make it this far, I can't help but stress, do not interact with her, simply block and report her account. I am most likely putting a target on my back and risking my reddit account making this document and even bringing her name up but I am genuinely sick seeing her get away with her bullying with no one checking her.

Edit/Update(s)

I decided if I find anything else popping up (or that my grammar is trash) I'll add updates here just to keep things transparent especially since this is an ongoing issue.

11/6/2025. Cyberweasel89 has tried to take my document down. Not happening. Right now the OG doc is going under review and I am uploading this copy onto archival sites to continue being accessed. I am not going to be silenced.
