i don't really take requests anymore because there's been a moment where i constantly got alts requested, which is why i officially closed requests. however, if you have an idea that you really want me to do, you can contact me via pinterest/discord.

however, there are no promises i'll actually accept the request. it has to ignite a spark.

if your request only applies to a certain pov, i'll either find a way to make it anypov, or i won't accept it. i created this page because i had enough of the single-pov bots (seeing fempov constantly but i only rp as a male).JUST
