Jammin' for Jesus set for Sunday

More than 100 singers and musicians will participate in the annual Labor Day Jammin' for Jesus concert Sunday at the Branson USA Live Theater in the new Branson USA Amusement Park.

Masters of ceremony include entertainers Barbara Fairchild and Bill Brooks and Larry Wilhite, president of Backstage Ministries.

Special guest will be Marty Haggard — son of country legend Merle — who will come from his Nashville home.

Scheduled performers include members of the Baldknobbers cast, Braschlers Quartet, Ronnie and Glory Anne Prophet, Doug Gabriel and members of the Platters.

The program begins at 8:30 p.m. Sunday and will continue into Monday morning. During the evening — at approximately 9:45 and 10:45 — the show will be featured on the local cut-in for the annual Jerry Lewis Muscular Dystrophy Telethon on KOLR.

A minimum donation of $10 will be requested for general admission with $5 requested from Branson Gospel Music Association members. The donations will benefit Backstage Ministries and the ministry of Jammin' for Jesus.
