REMARKS

Vilerik is a known cybercriminal hiding under an alias with an extensive global cybercrime network. He is trilingual, with Russian as his native language

CAUTION

In 2014, one of his operation cells was captured in a Latin American country, and an anonymous informant confirmed the extensive power and contacts he holds around the world. Many of these operational cells work independently and paid a commission or royalties to Vilerik in exchange for providing various forms of support.

Some leaked aliases of cybercriminals working under Vilerik include: CIPHER, Phantom, Narkotik, RedBron, and Vektor

HIGHLY DANGEROUS SUBJECT

In 2014, he targeted several African companies as well as a few medium-sized businesses in Europe
